Appellant's Motion to Dismiss Intervenors

On 04/17/2026, the appellant submitted its motion to dismiss the above intervenors, contending as follows:

- The intervenors' resolutions do not satisfy the requirements of Section 1910.60(d)(2) as they were passed 10 or 13 years ago, do not specify the subject property, and have no start or end date.
- Perpetual contracts are contrary to public policy. Rico Industries, Inc. v. TLC Group, Inc., 2014 IL App (1st) 131522, ¶ 35, 6 N.E.3d 415, 424 (Ill. App. 2014). By authorizing intervention in "any and all" tax years without boundaries or expiration, the resolutions are perpetual in nature and are being used to grant authority to intervene more than ten years after their adoption.

Intervenors' Response to Appellant's Motion to Dismiss Intervenors
The intervenors submitted their response to the motion on May 7, 2026, contending as follows:

- The intervenors complied with all applicable procedural requirements for intervention, and the PTAB has already granted their participation in this appeal, thereby finding compliance with the PTAB's rules.
- The requirements raised by the appellant are not included in the PTAB's rules.
- The resolutions are not private commercial sales contracts. The resolutions are terminable by board action and may be repealed. Under Rico, the remedy for a purported perpetual contract is not invalidation, but termination at will.

Appellant's Reply to Intervenors' Response
On 05/20/2026, the appellant filed its reply to the intervenors' response, contending as follows:

- The resolutions allow counsel to file for any tax year, any property within the taxing district, without restrictions or specification. The resolutions are an improper blanket delegation of authority.
- The existence of a repeal clause does not negate their perpetual nature.
- The intervenors provide no authority to support their contention that PTAB may not revisit its orders during the appeal proceeding.
- Illinois public policy against perpetual contracts is not limited to commercial contracts.

Appellant's Brief
On 07/10/2026, the appellant submitted its supplemental brief addressing the five points requested by the PTAB. In the brief, the appellant contends:

- FIRST. Section 1910.60 requires that the resolution be specific to intervention in the particular appeal.
    - The use of "the" before Request to Intervene, resolution, and governing board in Section 1910.60(d)(2) indicates the resolution must relate to the specific document being filed in the particular appeal and the current governing board of the taxing body. The Request to Intervene "must be accompanied by" the resolution, meaning that the resolution must be passed in connection with the specific Request to Intervene.

  - Section 1910.60(e)(1) requires the resolution to be properly adopted, which means the resolution is valid under applicable law, including the non-delegability doctrine and the requirements of the taxing bodies' enabling statutes.

- SECOND. The resolution requirement is jurisdictional, and the PTAB has authority to revisit or set aside an order allowing the intervention.
  - Without a proper resolution, taxing bodies are not authorized to intervene, and the PTAB has no jurisdiction over those taxing bodies as parties to the appeal.
  - Taxing bodies cannot delegate discretionary powers. The intervenors' resolutions are dated and do not demonstrate that their current governing boards have decided to intervene in this appeal. (Bd. of Trs., Prairie St. Coll. v. Ill. Educ. Lab. Rels. Bd., 173 Ill. App. 3d 413 (4th Dist. 1988).
  - PTAB has authority to revisit, modify, or vacate an order and maintains jurisdiction over procedural matters in an appeal until a final decision is issued. (35 ILCS 200/16-195).
- THIRD. The intervenors' resolutions are invalid because litigation authority cannot be delegated.
  - The enabling statutes for each of the intervenors vests litigation authority in the elected governing body with materially identical terms. (105 ILCS 5/10-2; 60 ILCS 1/85-5, 85-10(a) & (b); 65 ILCS 5/1-1-10 & 5/2-2-12).
  - School boards and municipalities may not delegate discretionary powers. (Bd. of Trs., Prairie State Coll. v. Ill. Educ. Lab. Rels. Bd., 173 Ill. App. 3d 395, 412 (4th Dist. 1988); Stroh v. Casner, 201 Ill. App. 281 (3d Dist. 1916); People v. City of Centralia, 1 Ill. App. 2d 228, 233 (4th Dist. 1953); Council of W. Suburban Teachers Union, Loc. 571 v. Bd. of Educ., Proviso Twp. High Sch. Dist. 209, 160 Ill. App. 3d 1020, 1027 (1st Dist. 1987)).
  - A decision to commit public funds to litigation is a substantive policy choice. A blanket resolution attempts to delegate the elected body's authority whether to litigate to outside counsel.
  - An invalid resolution cannot be validated through repetition or acquiescence through the PTAB's prior acceptance of similar blanket resolutions.

- FOURTH. The appropriate remedy for the submission of a defective resolution is dismissal.
    - The intervenors' resolutions do not satisfy the requirements of Section 1910.60, undermine the taxing bodies' accountability to the public, and are invalid under Illinois law.
    - If a properly adopted resolution is not submitted within the 60-day intervention period, the intervention should be dismissed as provided in the PTAB's rules.
    - A resolution that is "terminable at will" does not cure these defects.
- FIFTH. The Open Meetings Act supports a finding that the intervenors' resolutions are invalid.
    - The Open Meetings Act requires that the public be given notice of and the right to attend all meetings where any business of a public body is discussed or acted on. (5 ILCS 120/1). A decision on whether a taxing district should engage in litigation is business of a public body.
    - The intervenors did not hold meetings in accordance with the Open Meetings Act to authorize this specific intervention. The acts of prior governing boards cannot deprive taxpayers of a forum.

Intervenors' Brief

On 07/10/2026, the intervenors submitted their supplemental brief addressing the five points requested by the PTAB. In the brief, the intervenors contend:

- FIRST. Section §1910.60(d)(2) does not require a resolution authorizing the specific Request to Intervene.
    - Section 1910.60(d)(2) only requires a resolution authorizing a legal representative and has no limits on the duration of the authorization. A general or standing authorization satisfies Section 1910.60(d)(2). Additional requirements that depart from its plain language and meaning should not be read into the rule.
    - A resolution is not invalid because the composition of the governing board has changed. Illinois law does not require a successor board to reauthorize a prior board's acts for them to be valid. The intervenors' resolutions are not expired.
    - PTAB has historically accepted general or standing resolutions to support intervention. The intervenors did not receive any incomplete notices from the PTAB regarding their submissions.
- SECOND. The resolution requirement is procedural, not jurisdictional, and the PTAB has no authority to act on the appellant's motion.

    - Jurisdiction over the appeal is governed by 35 ILCS 200/16-160. Technical flaws in a resolution do not divest the PTAB of jurisdiction over the appeal.
    - PTAB cannot set aside a Request to Intervene that it has already granted. The time for filing intervention has already passed, and dismissal would not be consistent with the PTAB's mandate to conduct proceedings to achieve substantial justice. (35 ILCS 200/16-180; 86 Ill. Adm. Code § 1910.92).
    - Section 1910.60 does not provide for the dismissal of an intervenor.
- THIRD. The intervenors' resolutions are valid under their enabling statutes.
    - Each intervenor's enabling statute grants broad authority to retain counsel and take actions necessary to protect the taxing body's financial interests. Section 1910.60 presumes that counsel may be authorized to file Requests to Intervene.
    - PTAB has no jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes over the validity or scope of a resolution, and the PTAB's inquiry should end when a facially valid resolution is submitted.
- FOURTH. The appropriate remedy for a defective resolution is to allow the taxing body to submit a revised resolution to correct the defect.
    - PTAB's mandate for informal procedures supports allowing a taxing body to submit a revised resolution. Taxing bodies may ratify past irregular or unauthorized acts to cure defects.
    - Dismissal without a meaningful opportunity to amend would be an abuse of discretion.
- FIFTH. The intervenors' resolutions were approved in accordance with the Open Meetings Act.
    - The appellant does not argue that the resolutions did not comply with the Open Meetings Act.
    - PTAB lacks jurisdiction to adjudicate alleged violations of the Open Meetings Act, which designates the exclusive forums for adjudication.

Appellant's Response Brief

On 07/22/2026, the appellant filed a response brief, contending as follows:

- The intervenors have not addressed their duty to the public and how their use of the dated resolutions has deprived current board members and the public of expressing their opinions.
- The intervenors did not support their contention that the PTAB lacks authority to revisit or modify its orders during an appeal proceeding. The PTAB has authority to determine whether a resolution has been properly adopted under Section 1910.60.

- The intervenors do not address how blanket delegations of authority are valid under their enabling statutes.
- The remedy proposed by the intervenors is not supported by the PTAB's rules, which do not provide for an extension of time to submit a resolution.
- The intervenors' resolutions are contrary to the purpose and intent of the Open Meetings Act.

2023 Tax Year Appeal

The same taxing districts intervened in the 2023 tax year appeal and filed the same appraisal evidence. The appellant did not move to dismiss the intervenors in that matter.

Resolutions are attached hereto as Addendum #1.

Motions: Appellants' Motions for Extension of Time to Substitute Expert Witness

Overview:

Relevant Facts

- PTAB has accepted the above appeals and notified the appropriate counties of the appeals (Motions were also filed for 25-59365-I-1 and 25-59858.001 thru .004-I-1 during the initial filing period for these appeals. Consequently, the motions for these two appeals were each treated as a request for an extension of time filed with the petition, and extensions were granted.)
- The above appeals are in varying stages of the appeal proceedings. Hearings have been requested by one or more parties to each appeal, but none of the above appeals have yet been set for a hearing.
- The sole basis for each of the above appeals is a Recent Appraisal, and the appellant in each of the above appeals submitted an appraisal prepared by Anthony Uzemack (except for 22-31524.001-I-3 and 25-28445.001-I-3, for which appraisals prepared by different appraisers, Thomas W. Grogan and John T. Setina, III, were submitted).

Appellants' Motions

On 07/02/2026, the appellants in the above appeals filed Motions for Extension of Time to Substitute Expert Witness, as follows:

- The appellants assert that Anthony Uzemack authored the appraisal reports filed in the above appeals and was expected to testify about these reports. Uzemack suddenly and unexpectedly died of natural causes on 06/04/2026.
- The appellants argue that Uzemack's death is an extraordinary circumstance under Section 1910.30(g) of the PTAB's rules. The appellants maintain they cannot adequately present their cases without their expert appraisal evidence.

- The appellants state the motions are submitted in good faith, not for delay; the requested extension would prejudice no parties; and the appeals are not scheduled for hearings.
- The appellants request a 90-day extension to retain a new appraiser to prepare a new appraisal and to submit a new appraisal as evidence in each appeal.
- The motion is made in good faith and not for delay; none of the parties would be prejudiced by granting the requested extension, and none of the appeals are scheduled for hearings.
- The appellants submitted an Affidavit of Service with each motion, which certifies the motion was served on 07/02/2026 on the parties identified in Exhibit 2 to each motion. Exhibit 2 identifies the attorney(s) representing the intervenor(s) in each appeal. (However, no intervenors or their attorneys were identified for 22-31462.001-C-2 and 24-01135.001-C-2, despite these appeals having one or more intervenors. The intervenor in the former is represented by an attorney identified for other appeals in Exhibit 2. The intervenors in the latter are represented by an attorney who is not identified in Exhibit 2, although the law firm is identified for a different appeal in Exhibit 2.)

- The attorney states she was out of town from 07/02/2026 through 07/07/2026, with limited internet access and did not discover the failed submission until 07/09/2026, when the attorney e-filed a corrected submission.
- The appellant contends good cause existed for the late submission as the attorney reasonably believed the submission had been made prior to the filing deadline and only discovered it had not been successfully filed after realizing no confirmation was received.
- The 3-day delay in filing was inadvertent and unintentional, the appellant acted in good faith and acted immediately upon discovering the submission had not been filed, and the appellant intends to present clear and objective evidence to support the petition.
- The Administrative Code allows for extensions of time for good cause shown. Illinois Supreme Court Rule 183 permits an extension of time for filing or performing any act required by the rules, when good cause is shown, subject to > submission of the request and notice on the opposing party, either before or after expiration.

Upon receiving the appellant's motion, the PTAB's Information Technology Department researched the appellant's filing history to determine what occurred. The appellant presented Exhibit A, a screenshot of the attorney's internet history, which shows that on 07/01/2026 the attorney accessed the initial pages of the e-filing system on the PTAB's website but did not proceed to DocuSign to create a filing envelope and start a filing (DocuSign website entries would be seen in the history as shown in the example below).

The internet history shows the attorney went to the Forms page of the PTAB's website and downloaded a copy of the residential appeal form on 07/01/2026. On 07/09/2026, the attorney went back to the e-filing system and created two envelopes in DocuSign (which are not shown in Exhibit A). The history of those two envelopes is below – the first one was not completed; the second one was completed. No e-filing envelopes were created on July 1 for this appeal.
