In each of the appeals listed above, the Cook County Board of Review had an outstanding extension until 5-26-13 to submit evidence. On 6-3-13, the PTAB received Notes on Appeal, evidence, and a cover sheet requesting PTAB to accept the late information as it would not prejudice the Appellant.

ss. See Attached Detailed Listing of Appeals

The BOR was notified of the attached appeals on 10-16-12 and 10-31-12 and given an automatic 90-day extension. The extensions expired on 1-14-13 and 1-29-13. Evidence and/or an extension request were not received and appeals were defaulted. On 6-21-13 a Motion To Vacate Default For Failure To Submit Evidence was received from the BOR. Included with this Motion is an affidavit by Joseph Skroko (CCBOR employee) stating that it is standard practice to request an extension of time, PTAB does not reject extension requests from the CCBOR and the CCBOR has come to rely on this extension, it is the practice of the CCBOR to send its responses via regular USPS mail, not by certified mail, and it is the practice of the CCBOR to mail the Notes on Appeal on the same day they are printed.

The defaults that occurred during this time frame appeared on PTAB's agenda April 10, 2013. The extension request for these files was emailed to PTAB 6 weeks after due dates. The BOR claimed the list was faxed within the acceptable time frame but neither the Springfield nor the Des Plaines offices have any record of receipt. Joe Skroko indicated the CCBOR thought it was faxed to phone number 217-782-6076 and this phone number is Springfield's main line, not a fax number. The CCBOR was advised to always send information such as extension requests via U.S. mail to our office as we use a postmark date as a receipt.
