Exxon Mobil's Motion

On 12/12/2025, Exxon Mobil filed its motion to dismiss the appeal as follows:

- Exxon Mobil contends that the appellant failed to serve Exxon Mobil with the appeal petition in a timely manner and to file a proof of service, as required by Section 1910.30(m) of the PTAB's rules.
  - Exxon Mobil states that the appeal petition was served on 03/06/2025, ten days after the appeal was filed, and that the appellant was notified by the PTAB that the appeal was incomplete. The appellant did not explain or provide a good-faith basis for its delay.
  - Exxon Mobil asserts the PTAB, an administrative agency, must follow its own rules (35 ILCS 200/16-170; 1411 N. State Condo. Ass'n v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 410 Ill. Dec. 699 (1st Dist. 2016); Provena Health v. Ill. Health Facilities Planning Bd., 382 Ill. App. 3d 34, 42 (1st Dist. 2008); Springwood Associates v. Health Facilities Planning Bd., 269 Ill. App. 3d 944, 948 (4th Dist. 1995).
  - Exxon Mobil contends that service under Section 1910.30(m) is mandatory, and that the PTAB cannot depart from the rule's plain and unambiguous meaning. (CBS Outdoor, Inc. v. The Dep't of Transp., 970 N.E. 2d 509m 514 (1st Dist. 2012).
  - Exxon Mobil argues the appellant's initial filing was not an incomplete petition under Section 1910.30(k) as a failure to serve the appeal petition is not the type of procedural error contemplated by Section 1910.30(k). Furthermore, based on a lack of express language in Section 1910.30(k) relating to the service requirement, Exxon Mobil concludes this omission infers it was not intended to be included in Section 1910.30(k). (See City of St. Charles v. Ill. Labor Relations Bd., 395 Ill. App. 3d 507, 509-10 (2d Dist. 2009)). Exxon Mobil contends that allowing an appellant to correct a failure to serve the petition under Section 1910.30(k) creates an ad hoc exception to Section 1910.30(m).
- In the alternative, Exxon Mobil contends the appellant has not met the burden of going forward, and the appeal should be dismissed under Section 1910.63(b).
  - Exxon Mobil argues the appraisals presented by the appellant do not provide a value for the subject's taxable real property, as both appraisals include real and personal property. Exxon Mobil further argues that the appellant's requested assessment does not reflect a market value that is supported by the appraisals, and the appellant has not explained how the requested assessment was calculated.
  - Exxon Mobil contends the appellant filed more than 1,500 pages of documents, many illegible, without any explanation or discussion of their relevance in a legal brief. Exxon Mobil points out that the contention of law basis for appeal included in the initial filing was not included in the amended petition.

- Exxon Mobil contends the appeal should be dismissed under Section 1910.63(b), which authorizes dismissal when the appellant does not submit evidence to challenge the assessment. (See Commonwealth Edison Co. v. Ill. Property Tax Bd., 378 Ill. App. 3d 901, 918 (2d Dist. 2008)).

Appellant's Response to Motion to Dismiss

On 12/23/2025, the appellant responded to Exxon Mobil's motion as follows:

- With regard to the requirements of Section 1910.30(m), the appellant contends it timely served the appeal petition on Exxon Mobil's registered agent and filed the proof of service within the 30 days provided in the incomplete notice issued by the PTAB. The appellant admits that it did not include proof of service in the initial filing.
  - The appellant argues that Section 1910.30(m) provides no timeline for serving the registered agent or filing the proof of service with the PTAB.
  - The appellant contends the deficiency under Section 1910.30(m) was properly treated as an incomplete petition under Section 1910.30(k).
  - The appellant further contends that neither Section 1910.30(k) nor the PTAB's incomplete notice required the appellant to provide any explanation for the delay.
- The appellant argues that it presented appraisals and other evidence in support of the appeal that meets the burden of going forward. The appellant disagrees that its contention of law argument was waived in the amended petition.
  - The appellant explains that one appraisal was prepared without the subject's historic operating and financial data, and one appraisal was prepared with that data. The appellant agrees that the appraisals value complex machinery and equipment that has been classified and assessed as real property in Will County since the property's construction in 1972.
  - The appellant argues that it raised the classification issue in the CBOR proceeding. The appellant contends the documentary evidence submitted to the PTAB shows the classification of property in Will County before 1979 and clearly identifies and demonstrates the historical classification of the subject prior to and after 01/01/1979. The appellant asserts its documentary evidence shows the de minimus nature of the subject's pre-1979 personal property. The appellant further contends it has no obligation to offer opposing counsel any written explanation or discussion of its evidence at the time of filing, which would be presented at a hearing.

- The appellant argues the taxpayer has the burden of showing property must be classified as personal property under the Freeze Act. (Provena Covenant Medical Center v. Department of Revenue, 236 Ill.2d 368, 925 N.E.2d 1131, (2010); Oregon Community Unit School District No. 220 v. PTAB, 285 Ill. App. 3d 170, 674 N.E.2d 129, 133 (2d Dist. 1996)).
- The appellant requests that the motion to dismiss be denied.

Exxon Mobil's Reply Memorandum in Support of Motion to Dismiss

On 01/06/2026, Exxon Mobil replied in support of its motion to dismiss as follows:

- Exxon Mobil argues Section 1910.30(m) is analogous to provisions in the Code of Civil Procedure whereby jurisdiction over a party is acquired. 735 ILCS 5/2-204 and 5/2-205; State Bank of Lake Zurich v. Thill, 113 Ill. 2d 294 (1986).
  - Illinois courts have consistently held that proper service of process on corporations involves fundamental principles of due process. Slates v. International House of Pancakes, Inc., 90 Ill. App. 3d 716, 728 (4th Dist. 1980).
  - Illinois administrative proceedings, including PTAB proceedings, are governed by these same fundamental principles and due process requirements. Kankakee County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 316 Ill. App. 3d 148, 154 (3d Dist. 2000).
  - Exxon Mobile argues that Section 1910.30(m) recognizes that notice to a corporate or partnership owner is required before the PTAB can exercise its authority to increase the assessed value of a property in an undervaluation appeal.
- Exxon Mobil argues the appellant's reliance on Section 1910.30(k) is misplaced as a deficiency under Section 1910.30(m) is not an incomplete petition under Section 1910.30(k).
  - Exxon Mobil asserts that Section 1910.30(k) does not specifically identify a deficiency under Section 1910.30(m).
  - Exxon Mobil contends the appellant's petition contained all the information identified in Sections 1910.30(k) and 1910.30(m) and were not incomplete: they were signed, included the assessment amounts, included the requested assessment amounts, included the necessary information for the appellant's attorney, and included Exxon Mobil's name and address. Consequently, Exxon Mobil argues the was "complete" as that term is defined by the PTAB's rules.
  - Exxon Mobil further contends the appellant's defect was not simply in failing to file a proof of service with the petition – it was in failing to serve the petition on Exxon Mobil's registered agents when it initially filed the petition. However, Exxon Mobil acknowledges that forgetting - to include the proof of service, if the petition was actually served, might be considered an “incomplete petition.”

- Exxon Mobil contends that Section 1910.30(k) does not allow an appellant to correct the omission under Section 1910.30(m) after the deadline for filing the appeal had expired. (See City of St. Charles v. Ill. Labor Relations Bd., 395 Ill. App. 3d 507, 509-510 (2d Dist. 2009)). Exxon Mobil argues that allowing the appellant to correct its failure to serve as an incomplete petition renders the Section 1910.30(m) service provision meaningless.
  - Exxon Mobil argues the appellant, as the petitioner, has the burden of going forward and must provide evidence that the assessment is incorrect. Exxon Mobil points out that only real property is assessed in Illinois. 35 ILCS 200/1-130.
    - Exxon Mobil asserts the appraisals submitted by the appellant present value conclusions that include non-taxable property, without any allocation between real and personal property, and conclude different market values than the market value reflected in the appellant's requested assessment. Exxon Mobil argues the appellant has not explained how its documentary evidence supports its position.
    - Exxon Mobil disagrees that it has the burden of showing that property must be classified as personal property, as the appellant has the burden of going forward under Section 1910.63(b). West Loop Associates, LLC v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 2017 Ill. App. (1st) 151998, ¶11 (1st Dist. 2017).

Analysis: Exxon Mobil seeks dismissal of this appeal under two alternative bases: (1) the appellant's failure to timely serve the petition on Exxon Mobil's registered agent as required by Section 1910.30(m), and (2) the appellant's failure to meet the burden of going forward under Section 1910.63(b).

Section 1910.30(m) of the PTAB's rules provides:

If the petition for appeal is filed by an interested taxing body, rather than by the owner or taxpayer whose assessment is in question, the taxing body must furnish the name and address of the owner and/or taxpayer of the property in question, if different from the owner, the name and address of the registered agent of the corporate owner or taxpayer, or the name and address of any partner or registered agent of a partnership owner or taxpayer. A copy of the completed petition shall then be sent to the owner and/or taxpayer of the property by the Clerk of the Property Tax Appeal Board. Any petition filed by an interested taxing body on property owned by a corporation or partnership must be served upon the registered agent of the corporation or upon any partner or registered agent of the partnership by mail, with proof of service filed with the Board. Any petition filed by an interested taxing body without the name and address of the owner and/or taxpayer of the property in question shall be treated as an incomplete petition in accordance with subsection (k).

86 Ill. Adm. Code § 1910.30(m) (emphasis added).

Section 1910.30(k) provides that an appellant may resubmit a corrected petition within 30 days after notice of an incomplete petition. It further provides: “Petitions that are not properly signed, petitions that do not state the assessed valuation assigned by the board of review, petitions that do not state the assessed valuation considered correct by the contesting party, petitions that do not include an e-mail address for the contesting party or the contesting party’s attorney, and petitions not containing all information as required in this Section, shall be treated as incomplete petitions.”

Section 1910.30 contains numerous requirements for a petition that are not specifically identified in Section 1910.30(k) in addition to the requirements under Section 1910.30(m), including using the prescribed form and identifying the subject PINs (Section 1910.30(c)); including a copy of the board of review’s final decision (Section 1910.30(e)); identifying the appellant’s telephone number and mailing address (Section 1910.30(i)). The PTAB issues an incomplete notice for any petitions that do not meet the requirements of Section 1910.30. Section 1910.30(g) allows extensions of time to submit evidence but all other requirements of Section 1910.30 must be met upon filing or within 30 days of an incomplete notice. Under Section 1910.30(l), the PTAB does not accept a petition until all of the requirements of Section 1910.30 are met, including the submission of documentary evidence.

It is undisputed that the appellant did not serve Exxon Mobil’s registered agent, or file a proof of service, when it filed the petition on 02/14/2025, and that the appellant served Exxon Mobil’s registered agent, and filed a proof of service, on 03/06/2025, within the 30-day time period for resubmitting a corrected petition in the incomplete notice; and Exxon Mobil seeks an interpretation of Section 1910.30(k) that would treat the requirements of Section 1910.30 differently, allowing only some to be corrected under Section 1910.30(k). This interpretation is inconsistent with the process for accepting a petition under Section 1910.30. All the requirements of Section 1910.30 must be met before the PTAB will accept the petition, with extensions of time available to submit evidence (Section 1910.30(g)) and 30-day extensions of time available to correct other deficiencies (Section 1910.30(k)).

Furthermore, an owner/taxpayer is not a necessary party to an appeal filed by a taxing body but may intervene by filing a Request to Intervene within 30 days of notice from the PTAB. Section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) expressly permits a taxing body to file an appeal to the PTAB from a final decision of a board of review. An owner or taxpayer may then become a party to the appeal by intervening in the proceeding. Section 1910.60(c) of the Board's rules provides: "Upon notice to the owner that a taxing body has filed an appeal affecting his property, the owner or taxpayer may become an intervening party." The taxpayer/owner must file a Request to Intervene "within 30 days of the postmark date of the notice to the owner or taxpayer that the taxing body has filed an appeal." Pursuant to Section 1910.30(m), the PTAB notifies an owner/taxpayer of a completed petition filed by a taxing body.

Section 1910.30(m) also contains a requirement that the appellant must serve a corporate or partnership owner's registered agent or partner. This service requirement does not specify that a completed petition must be served, distinguishing it from the later notice of the completed petition and indicating that this service and filing must be made before a petition is complete.

After the appellant filed its evidence, the PTAB accepted the completed petition on 10/02/2025 and notified CBOR and Exxon Mobil's counsel of the completed filing. Exxon Mobil had 30 days, until 11/01/2025, to file a Request to Intervene in the appeal. PTAB's notice on 10/02/2025 triggered the 30-day time period for the owner/taxpayer to intervene in the appeal, not the appellant's service on Exxon Mobil's registered agent on 03/06/2025 by the appellant. Exxon Mobil fundamentally misunderstands the process under the PTAB's rules for an owner to intervene in an undervaluation appeal filed by a taxing body.

Section 1910.63(b). In the alternative, Exxon Mobil argues the appeal should be dismissed under Section 1910.63(b).

Section 1910.63(b) of the PTAB's rules provides: "Under the burden of going forward, the contesting party must provide substantive, documentary evidence or legal argument sufficient to challenge the correctness of the assessment of the subject property. Failure to do so will result in the dismissal of the appeal."

Section 1910.65(c) provides in relevant part, "Proof of the market value of the subject property may consist of...an appraisal of the subject property as of the assessment date at issue." Section 1910.65(d) provides in relevant part: "If contentions of law are raised, the party shall submit a brief in support of his position."

In support of the undervaluation argument, the appellant submitted appraisals, together with other documentation, which the appellant contends demonstrate the historical classification of certain property. The appraisals conclude values for the subject that differ from the market value reflected by the subject's assessment.

In support of the contention of law argument (selected as a basis for the appeal in the initial petition and not selected as a basis for the appeal in the amended petition), the appellant did not submit any legal brief as required under Section 1910.65(d).

Section 5 of the resolution provides: "This Resolution shall be in full force and effect upon its adoption and shall remain in effect through December 31, 2023, with regard to initiating any new actions or interventions and until action by this Board to modify or rescind it with regard to all other matters."

- 10/31/2025-The intervenor submits its Intervenor's Response to Coral Equity's Motion to Dismiss Intervenor.

Appellant's Motion

In the motion, the appellant seeks to dismiss the intervenor as a party to this appeal on the basis that the intervenor's counsel lacked valid authority to file the Request to Intervene on the intervenor's behalf, contending as follows:

- Section 1910.60(d)(2) of PTAB's rules requires a taxing district to submit a valid resolution from its governing body authorizing its counsel to file the Request to Intervene on its behalf.
- The resolution filed by the intervenor with its Request to Intervene did not satisfy the requirements of Section 1910.60(d)(2) as the resolution was effective only until December 31, 2023, and was not effective on the date the Request to Intervene was filed (05/14/2025).
- The intervenor's counsel filed the Request to Intervene more than 16 months after the expiration of authority under the resolution and did not submit any evidence to show that the authority under the resolution was modified or extended.
- The intervenor's counsel lacked authority under the resolution to file an intervention after December 31, 2023, and consequently, the intervenor has not complied with the requirements of Section 1910.60(d)(2).
- Administrative agencies must follow their own rules and regulations, citing to Margolin v. Public Mutual Fire Insurance Co., 4 Ill. App. 3d 661, 667, 281 N.E.2d 728 (1972).
- Accordingly, the appellant requests that the intervenor be dismissed as a party and that any arguments, filings, and evidence submitted by the intervenor be stricken.

- Alternatively, if the motion is denied, the appellant requests an extension of time to file a rebuttal.

Intervenor's Response

In the Intervenor's Response to Coral Equity's Motion to Dismiss Intervenor, the intervenor contends as follows:

- The intervenor's resolution was duly and lawfully passed by its governing board and provides authority for the intervenor's counsel to file interventions on its behalf for tax year 2017 and succeeding years.
- To eliminate any doubt regarding counsel's authority to file this intervention, the intervenor adopted an updated resolution on August 25, 2025, containing the same authorization for tax year 2023 and succeeding years.
- The updated resolution was attached as Exhibit 1 to the response. Section 5 of the updated resolution provides: "This Resolution shall be in full force and effect upon its adoption and shall remain in effect until action by this Board to modify or rescind it."
- Section 1910.60(d)(2) does not have any requirements regarding the date of adoption of a resolution.
- The originally submitted resolution clearly authorizes the intervenor's counsel to file interventions with PTAB for tax year 2017 and succeeding years.
- The intervenor's counsel has represented the intervenor in appeals before PTAB for many years.
- Section 4 of the originally submitted resolution has a savings clause that provides if any provision is held to be invalid, the invalidity of that provision shall not affect other provisions of the resolution. The intervenor argues that Section 4 permits counsel to file interventions under the resolution without giving effect to the expiration clause.
- Section 1910.92 of the PTAB's rules eliminates formal pleading, practice, and evidence rules in order to conform to substantial justice, as required by Section 16-180 of the Property Tax Code. A technicality should not bar this intervention in accordance with the principles of informal procedures before the PTAB. The intervenor contends that resolutions are ministerial acts, citing People v. Mount, 87 Ill. App. 194, 195 (1899) and Mound City v. Mason, 262 Ill. 392, 396, 104 N.E. 685, 686-87 (1914).
- The intervenor requests that the motion be denied based on the submitted resolution and its updated resolution attached as Exhibit 1.

The Doctrine of Nondelegability and 105 ILCS 5/10-2

On December 9, 2025, the PTAB asked the parties to brief an additional issue. The question presented was, “May a taxing district issue a blanket resolution delegating its authority to intervene in PTAB matters to a law firm, or must a school board approve each intervention by case-specific resolution?” The PTAB highlighted relevant authority as a starting point. The parties were given a deadline of January 23, 2026, to submit briefs. The appellant availed itself of this opportunity and submitted a brief; the intervenor did not. The appellant argues:

- A resolution that has expired by its own terms is void and cannot authorize litigation or be retroactively revived.
- The resolution is also facially deficient because it delegates open-ended intervention authority to counsel instead of reflecting a case-specific decision by the elected Board of Education.
- Under Illinois’ nondelegability doctrine, a school board may not delegate its discretionary duties and responsibilities to others (citing Bd. of Trs., Prairie State Coll. v. Illinois Educ. Lab. Rel. Bd. and related cases).
- This doctrine ensures democratic accountability, requiring decisions on public policy, funds, and education to be made by the elected governing board—not through generalized or blanket delegations.
- A generic or blanket delegation does not constitute a “properly adopted” resolution under PTAB Rule 1910.60(e) and undermines both the doctrine and PTAB’s procedural rules.
- Because the Intervenor lacked valid authorization at the time of filing, its Request to Intervene is invalid and unauthorized, and dismissal is requested.
