Relevant Facts

- 06/12/2026–The above appellants file the above appeal petitions, each seeking a rollover from a prior-year PTAB final administrative decision identified in the petition as issued on 05/19/2026. Each appellant submits the following as supporting documentation: a page depicting a PDF icon captioned with a PTAB Docket Number, a brief requesting a rollover, and a property tax exemption history.
- 07/09/2026–PTAB returns Docket No. 24-58067 to the appellant as incomplete for failure to submit a copy of the board of review decision or prior year’s PTAB decision to establish jurisdiction. The incomplete notice further states: “We are unable to access and see the PDF of the BOR or PTAB decision letter on your appeal. The PDF that is attached will not open.” The appellant is provided a due date of 08/08/2026 to correct the petition.

- 07/16/2026–PTAB returns the remaining appeals to the appellants as incomplete for failure to submit a copy of the board of review decision or prior year's PTAB decision to establish jurisdiction. Each incomplete notice further states: "We are unable to access and see the PDF of the BOR that was uploaded." The appellants are each provided with a due date of 08/15/2026 to correct their petition.
- 08/04/2026 –The appellants respond to the PTAB's Incomplete Checklists by re-submitting their original filings.
- 08/06/2026 – PTAB staff emails the appellants' counsel, notifying counsel that the resubmissions are insufficient, explaining that submitting a picture of a PDF icon does not submit the actual decision, and that "a copy of the PTAB decision is required to file a rollover or direct appeal." PTAB staff also reminds counsel of the due dates of each appeal to submit a corrected response.
- 09/03/2026–PTAB dismisses the above appeals for failure to provide substantive documentary evidence or legal argument sufficient to challenge the correctness of the assessments of the subject properties under Section 1910.63(a)&(b) of the PTAB's rules and to comply with the PTAB's rule under Section 1910.30(k) of the PTAB's rules.
- 09/21/2026–PTAB staff emails the appellants' counsel a link to access the dismissed appeal files. Appellants' counsel responds that he assumed PTAB could access the files if a link were uploaded. [Rule 1910.33(e) states, in relevant part, that "links to material either within the filed document or external to the filed document are for convenience purposes only. The external material behind the link is not considered part of the filing or the petition"]. Appellant's counsel asks about the process for filing a motion to reinstate and requests electronic copies of the 08/04/2026 submissions.
- 09/22/2026–PTAB staff again provides counsel with the same link to access the dismissed appeal files and advises counsel about the process for filing a motion. PTAB staff further advises counsel that a picture of a PDF icon cannot be opened, and that embedded links in a document do not transfer when uploaded through PTAB's e-filing portal. Counsel was advised that the actual PDF must be uploaded.
- The appellants' attorney spoke with PTAB's staff on 9/16/2026, 09/18/2026, and 09/24/2026.
- Each appeal was dismissed as incomplete (no PTAB decision attached to the petition establishing jurisdiction), and for the appellants' failure to timely remedy the incomplete checklist. The Cook County Board of Review has not yet been notified of these appeals and has not filed any responses to these motions.

Appellants' Motions

On 09/25/2026, thirty-nine and forty-six days after the incomplete checklist's effective due dates of August 17th and August 10th, respectively, counsel submits Motions to Reinstate Appeals, contending as follows:

- Each appeal is a rollover appeal filed on behalf of a residential homeowner.
- Counsel attaches the missing PTAB decision to each motion, claiming the deficiency is thereby eliminated.
- Counsel acted in good faith and believed he submitted the prior year PTAB decision in each appeal. Counsel could open the PDF on his computer and believed PTAB could do the same.
- Counsel argues the references to a board of review decision in the incomplete notices created confusion. The appellants argue the incomplete notice did not clearly explain the deficiency as required under Section 1910.30(k) of the PTAB's rules.
- Counsel argued that another opportunity to correct the petitions should have been provided and that the appellants should not be penalized by dismissal due to their counsel's error.
- Counsel points out that the briefs submitted with each petition requested the PTAB take judicial notice of the prior year PTAB decision for each appeal under Section 1910.90 of the PTAB's rules. Counsel contends the prior-year PTAB Docket Numbers were indicated with each PDF icon, and PTAB could have found those decisions.
- Counsel argues it is unfair and contrary to substantial justice for the PTAB to dismiss the appeals under these circumstances. Each appellant requests reinstatement and that the PTAB take judicial notice of the prior-year PTAB decision for each appeal.
