

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Bob Pigott
DOCKET NO.: 03-29212.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-01-207-035-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Bob Pigott, the appellant, by attorney George Relias of Fisk Kart Katz and Regan, Ltd. of Chicago and the Cook County Board of Review (board).

The subject property consists of a 115-year-old, two-story, three-unit apartment building of masonry construction containing 3,758 square feet of building area and located in Jefferson Township, Cook County. The apartment property includes three bathrooms, a full basement and a one-car garage.

The appellant, through counsel, submitted evidence before the PTAB claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant offered six suggested comparable properties located within a block of the subject. These properties consist of two or three-story mixed-use buildings of masonry construction and range in age from 102 to 132 years. The properties contain between three and five apartments and each building has a commercial unit. The comparables include one, four or six bathrooms and five have basements. Two sites have a two or three-car garage. The comparables contain between 3,024 and 6,264 square feet of building area and have improvement assessments ranging from $11,071 to $21,036 or from $2.29 to $4.27 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final improvement assessment of $28,566, or $7.60 per square foot of living area, was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review offered four suggested comparable properties located within a quarter mile of the subject. The comparables consist of three-story, three-unit buildings of masonry construction. The comparables range in age from 101 to 115 years and have full basements. They have three bathrooms and three have two-car garages. The comparable properties range in size from 3,399 to 3,822 square feet of living area with improvement assessments ranging from $27,978 to $31,406 or from $7.75 to $8.52 per square foot of living area. The board also disclosed that the subject was purchased in June of 2002 for $420,000. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject property's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has failed to overcome this burden.

The PTAB finds the board's four comparables are the properties most similar to the subject. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $7.75 to $8.52 per square foot of living area. The subject's per square foot improvement assessment of $7.60 is below this range of properties. The PTAB gives less weight to the appellant's comparables because they are less similar to the subject in building area and have commercial units and thus have less influence. After considering the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the PTAB finds the evidence is insufficient to effect a change in the subject's assessment.

As a result of this analysis, the PTAB finds the appellant did not adequately demonstrate that the subject apartment building was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
