

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: N Groetzinger
DOCKET NO.: 07-22672.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-20-411-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are N Groetzinger, the appellant, by attorney James A. DiChristofano of Law Offices of James A. DiChristofano in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 15,220
IMPR.: $ 44,408
TOTAL: $ 59,628

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a one and one-half story single-family dwelling of frame construction containing 1,380 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 118 years old, and it has a full, finished basement.

The appellant's appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment process. The appellant submitted information on four comparable properties described as one or one and one-half story frame or masonry single-family dwellings that range in age from 103 to 120 years old. The comparable dwellings range in size from 1,219 to 1,674 square feet of living area, and they have improvement assessments ranging from $26.70 to $29.57 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment is $32.18 per square foot of living area. Limited data was submitted on three additional comparables. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment was disclosed. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties consisting of one and one-half story frame single-family dwellings that range in age from 114 to 126 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,293 to 1,509 square feet of living area, and they have improvement assessments ranging from $32.26 to $35.46 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The Board gives little weight to three of the appellant's comparables due to the lack of any descriptive evidence. Both parties presented assessment data and descriptive evidence on a total of eight equity comparables. The Board finds the comparables numbered one, two, and four by the board of review were most similar to the subject in size, style, and exterior construction. They were also very similar in age. Due to their similarities to the subject, these comparables received the most weight in the Board's analysis. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $32.26 to $35.46 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $32.18 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the most similar comparables. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
