

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Sue Aspen
DOCKET NO.: 07-23736.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-06-201-038-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Sue Aspen, the appellant(s), by attorney Anita L. Bryant, of Thompson Coburn LLP in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $35,932
IMPR.: $55,432
TOTAL: $91,364

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a 13,611 square foot parcel of land improved with a 47-year old, multi-level, frame and masonry, single-family dwelling. The appellant argued that the fair market value of the subject was not accurately reflected in its assessed value as the basis of the appeal.

In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal undertaken by Keith Lewis of Phoenix-Chicago Appraisal Co. The report indicates Lewis is a State of Illinois certified residential appraiser. The appraiser indicated an estimated market value of $910,000 as of January 1, 2007. The appraisal report utilized the cost and sales comparison approaches to value to estimate the market value for the subject property.

In summarizing the subject property, the appraisal describes the subject as a multi-level dwelling containing 2,113 square feet of living area. The appraisal indicates the property was personally inspected on December 3, 2007. The appraisal found the subject's highest and best use to be its proposed use of removing the current home and building a 4,191 square foot improvement.

In the cost approach to value, the appraiser estimated the subject's land value at $952,770 by analyzing three land sales comparables. The appraiser then calculated a cost of $10,000 for sewer and water hook-ups and deducted $53,090 for demolition costs. The land was added back in to estimate a value for the subject property as demolished under the cost approach of $909,680.

Under the sales comparison approach, the appraiser analyzed the sales of four properties described as multi-story, single-family dwellings located within the subject's market. The properties contain between 1,943 to 2,602 square feet of living area and sold from January 2006 to September 2006 for prices ranging from $742,000 to $1,092,500, or $324.30 to $419.87 per square foot of living area, including land. The appraiser adjusted each of the comparables for pertinent factors. Based on the similarities and difference of the comparables when compared to the subject, the appraiser estimated a value for the subject under the sales comparison approach of $910,000.

In reconciling the approaches, the appraiser gave most weight to the sales comparison approach to determine a final estimate of value for the subject as of January 1, 2007 of $910,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $115,623 was disclosed. The subject's final assessment reflects a fair market value of $1,151,624 when the Illinois Department of Revenue's 2007 three-year median level of assessment of 10.04% for Cook County Class 2 properties is applied. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on two properties suggested as comparable. The properties are described as multi-level, frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. The properties are 42 and 51 years old, contain 1,749 and 2,341 square feet of living area, and have improvement assessments of $36.00 and $31.88 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

When overvaluation is claimed the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002); Winnebago County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 313 Ill.App.3d 179 (2nd Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. 86

Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c). Having considered the market value evidence presented, the PTAB concludes that this evidence indicates a reduction is warranted.

In determining the fair market value of the subject property, the PTAB finds the best evidence to be the appellant's appraisal. The appellant's appraiser utilized the cost and sales comparison approaches to value in determining the subject's market value. The PTAB finds this appraisal to be persuasive for the appraiser: has experience in appraising; personally inspected the subject property and reviewed the property's history; and used similar properties in the sales comparison approach while providing sufficient detail regarding each sale as well as adjustments that were necessary. The PTAB gives little weight to the board of review's evidence as the documentation is merely assessment information.

Therefore, the PTAB finds the subject had a market value of $910,000 for the 2007 assessment year. Since the market value of this parcel has been established, the Illinois Department of Revenue's 2007 three-year median level of assessment of 10.04% for Cook County Class 2 properties will apply. In applying this level of assessment to the subject, the total assessed value is $91,364 while the subject's current total assessed value is above this amount. Therefore, the PTAB finds that a reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
