

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Beverly Shaw
DOCKET NO.: 07-23969.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-20-319-031-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Beverly Shaw, the appellant, by attorney James E. Doherty, of Thomas M. Tully & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 90,877
IMPR.: $ 360,113
TOTAL: $ 450,990

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a 19-year old, two-story, masonry, single-family dwelling. It contains 8,435 square feet of living area and is situated on a 43,691 square foot site. Features include five full and two half-baths, four bedrooms, a partial, finished basement, central air conditioning, three fireplaces, and an attached three-car garage.

The appellant appeared before the Property Tax Appeal Board and submitted evidence claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of the equity argument, the appellant submitted descriptive and assessment data for five suggested comparables. The properties are improved with a two-story, masonry or frame and masonry, single-family dwelling. They range: in age from 7 to 51 years; in size from 5,053 to 8,819 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $33.35 to $35.73 per square foot of living area after correcting the appellant's calculations. Additionally, the evidence reflects that comparable #4 has a home improvement exemption with no further explanation. The subject's improvement assessment is $42.69 per square foot of living area. Amenities for the suggested comparable properties include two full baths to four full and one half-baths, a partial or full, finished or unfinished basement for four properties, one or two fireplaces for four properties, and a two to four-car garage. Based upon this analysis, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's improvement assessment of $360,113 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment data, as well as black and white photographs, relating to four suggested comparables within the subject's neighborhood, one of which is located within a one-quarter mile radius of the subject. The properties are improved with a two-story, masonry, single-family dwelling. They range: in age from 24 to 70 years; in size from 5,339 to 9,202 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $42.95 to $45.00 per square foot of living area. Amenities for the properties include three and one half to six and three half-baths, four to seven bedrooms, a full, finished or unfinished basement, central air conditioning, two to six fireplaces, and a two to three-car garage. Based upon this evidence, the board requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In written rebuttal, the appellant stated that three of the appellant's comparables are in close proximity to the subject.

At hearing, the parties re-affirmed the evidence previously submitted.

After hearing the testimony and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the subject's improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

The parties submitted a total of nine suggested comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board finds that comparables #1 and #5 submitted by the appellant and comparable #1 submitted by the board of review are most similar to the subject in design, size, location, and/or amenities. They are all two-story, masonry or frame and masonry, single-family dwellings that contain between 7,488 and 9,202 square feet of living area. In analysis, the Board accorded the most weight to these comparables. These comparables ranged in improvement assessment from $33.35 to $44.37 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment at $42.69 per square foot is within the range established by these comparables. The other suggested comparables were accorded less weight due their smaller improvement size.

After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require a mathematical equality. A practical, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence. For the foregoing reasons, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property is inequitably assessed. Therefore, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the subject's assessment as established by the board of review is correct and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
