

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kevin Kotas
DOCKET NO.: 09-25713.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-19-416-029-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kevin Kotas, the appellant, by attorney Patrick J. Cullerton, of Thompson Coburn LLP in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 6,600
IMPR.: $ 15,958
TOTAL: $ 22,558

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 72-year old, one-story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,231 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full basement, one bathroom, and a two-car garage. The property has a 4,125 square foot site and is located in Jefferson Township, Cook County.

The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested comparables. Four of the five properties were improved with a one and one-half story building, while the fifth property contained a one-story building. The buildings ranged in age from 56 to 93 years and in improvement size from 1,588 to 1,779 square feet of living area. The analysis indicated that the properties sold from April, 2007, to October, 2008, for prices that ranged from $148.96 to $205.92 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $26,998. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $303,348 or $246.42 per square foot of living area, including land, using 1,231 square feet of living area and when applying the 2009 three year median level of assessment for class 2 property of 8.90% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. The improvements were one-story, masonry buildings. They ranged in age from 69 to 79 years and in improvement size from 1,111 to 1,275 square feet of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appellant's comparables. These properties sold from April, 2007, to October, 2008, for unadjusted prices that ranged from $148.96 to $205.92 per square foot of living area. The improvements varied in style, location, improvement age, size and/or amenities.

After making adjustments to the sale comparables for pertinent factors, the Board finds that the subject's current fair market value is not supported and that a reduction is warranted to the subject property's assessment.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
