

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jose Jorge
DOCKET NO.: 09-33112.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-10-105-048-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jose Jorge, the appellant(s), by attorney Edward P. Larkin, of Edward P. Larkin, Attorney at Law in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 5,775
IMPR.: $ 70,300
TOTAL: $ 76,075

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one-story commercial building with 2,800 square feet of building area. The property has a 3,300 square foot site, and is located in Proviso Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 5-17 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of law argument, the appellant requested that the Board reduce the subject's 2009 total assessment based on the board of review's 2011 reduction. In support, the appellant submitted a photograph of the subject, 2011 assessor's printout, and a prior 2008 Board decision. Pursuant to the Hoyne Savings & Loan Association v. Hare and 400 Condominium Assn' v. Tully decisions, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessed value.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five comparable sales from the CoStar Comps Service.

At hearing, the appellant's attorney reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted. In addition, the appellant's attorney offered into evidence a 2008 Board decision. The 2008 Board decision was accepted into evidence and marked as appellant's Exhibit #1.

The board of review analyst reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted and testified that the 2011 board of review decision is too far removed in time from the appeal's 2009 tax year.

Conclusion of Law

After hearing the testimony and considering the evidence, the Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Evidence showing that the subject received a reduction in a later year is admissible, and can be a relevant factor in determining whether the assessment for the tax year at issue is grossly excessive. Hoyne Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Hare, 60 Ill. 2d 84, 90 (1974). However, when such evidence is taken into account, consideration must be given to any changes in the property that may have changed the subject's assessed value. Hoyne, 60 Ill. 2d at 90. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds that under Hoyne, it cannot consider the 2011 reduction by the board of review because no information/evidence was submitted regarding any changes in the subject property or the basis for the 2011 reduction. Therefore, the Board finds that a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
