

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Irene Slusarenko
DOCKET NO.: 09-34890.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-07-101-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Irene Slusarenko, the appellant(s), by attorney Arnold G. Siegel, of Siegel & Callahan, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $37,332
IMPR.: $56,061
TOTAL: $93,393

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2009 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an 8,784 square foot parcel of land improved with 83-year old, one-story and two-story, commercial/residential building(s) containing a total of 10,859 square feet of building area. The property is located in West

Chicago Township, Cook County. The property is a class 5 and class 3 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $455,000 as of January 1, 2009. The appraisal refers to the subject as containing improvements in many places throughout and does not clarify if the subject is one building or two adjacent buildings.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $153,001. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $803,794 using the Cook County Ordinance levels of assessment for class 5 property of 25% and class 3 property of 16%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted sales comparables of both retail residential properties and auto repair properties. The board lists the subject as being both a retail/residential and an auto repair building.

In rebuttal, the appellant argues that the subject meets the qualifications of a class 3 property and should be assessed fully as such.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The subject's assessment reflects a market value above the best evidence of market value in the record. The Board finds the subject property had a market value of $455,000 as of the assessment date at issue.

The Board further finds that the board of review has applied both class 3 and class 5 classifications in valuing the subject. The Board finds the appellant has failed to show that the subject should not have this dual classification. The appraisal is does not include a diagram showing how the property laid out nor interior and exterior photograph showing that each portion of the property is so indistinct that a dual classification is improbable. Therefore, the Board finds that a reduction based on the board of review's due classification is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
