

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Warren Kibbe
DOCKET NO.: 10-22522.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 11-19-110-010-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Warren Kibbe, the appellant, by attorney Steven B. Pearlman of Steven B. Pearlman & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,678
IMPR.: $56,107
TOTAL: $64,785

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,972 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 119 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and one fireplace. The subject property also includes a two-story coach house of frame construction with 863 square feet of living area. This house is 95 years old, is built on a slab foundation and has a three-car garage. The property has a 6,943 square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $64,785. The subject property has a total improvement assessment of $56,107 or $19.79 per square foot of living area. The larger dwelling had an improvement assessment of $36,008 or $18.26 per square foot of living area. The coach house had an improvement assessment of $20,099 or $23.29 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables.

The appellant submitted a rebuttal brief critiquing the board of review's submission. The appellant also argued that the subject's 2011 assessment was reduced to $56,762 and that the subject's 2011 assessment should be applied to the 2010 assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted six comparables for the Board's consideration. These comparables were relatively similar to the larger dwelling located on the subject property and had improvement assessments ranging from $16.88 to $18.56 per square foot of living area. The subject's larger dwelling has an improvement assessment of $18.26 per square foot of living area, which is within the range established by the comparables. The Board finds the appellant did not submit any evidence to challenge the assessment of the coach house. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
