

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Carl Galvan
DOCKET NO.: 10-22628.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-19-231-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Carl Galvan, the appellant(s), by attorney Glenn S. Guttman, of Rieff Schramm Kanter & Guttman in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 15,000
IMPR.: $ 100,000
TOTAL: $ 115,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 2,844 square feet of living area. The dwelling is two years of age. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 3,125 square foot site and is located in Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on seven equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $115,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $100,000 or $35.16 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

In rebuttal the appellant states that the board's evidence is inferior because the appellant's comparables are in closer proximity to the subject. The appellant submitted two maps showing the location of the appellant's and board's comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

As to the appellant's evidence of the proximity of the comparables submitted by the parties, the Board finds that the appellant's maps depict the location of the properties but do not provide data on the distance to the subject. The Board finds that an examination of the map with the board of review's comparables appears to support the distance of ¼ mile distance as indicated on the board's grid. The appellant lists the proximity of the comparables on the grid as: Same Neighborhood without including the actual distance. The Board therefore finds that the appellant failed to provide clear and convincing evidence that the board's comparables are inferior.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #4, #5, and #6 and board of review comparables #3 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $28.40 to $38.86 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $35.16 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
