

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Manubhai Patel
DOCKET NO.: 10-27688.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 08-28-418-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Manubhai Patel, the appellant, by attorney Anthony Lewis, of the Law Offices of Gary H. Smith in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,328
IMPR.: $ 17,722
TOTAL: $ 21,050

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a 51 year-old, one-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 1,136 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a crawl space and a one-car garage. The property has a 7,832 square foot site and is located in Elk Grove Township, Cook County. The property is a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a settlement statement disclosing the subject property was purchased on January 9, 2009 by Manubhai Patel and Savitaben Patel from Deutsche Bank National Trust Company for a price of $150,000, or $132.04 per square foot of living area including land. The appellant also disclosed in Section IV-Recent Sale Data of the Residential Appeal that the subject was sold in settlement of a foreclosure. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $21,050. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $235,459 when using the 2010 three-year average median level of assessment of 8.94% for class 2 property as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested comparable sales that sold in 2009 for prices ranging from $224,000 to $250,000, or from $190.84 to $197.18 per square foot of living area including land. The board of review also submitted a brief arguing that the subject was sold as a compulsory sale and, therefore, not at fair cash value. In support of its brief, the board of review attached a "deed trail" disclosing the following documents had been recorded: 1) lis pendens on May 2, 2006 by grantor Deutsche Bank National Trust Company against grantee Donn Schultz; 2) assignment on August 1, 2006 by grantor Argent Mortgage Company to grantee Deutsche Bank; 3) Deed on January 23, 2009 from grantor Intercounty Judicial Sales Corporation to grantee Deutsche Bank; 4) Warranty Deed on January 23, 2009 from grantor Deutsche Bank to grantee Manubhai Patel. The board of review also submitted a copy of a Notice of Foreclosure filed on May 2, 2006 by Deutsche Bank as Plaintiff against Donn Schultz as Defendant.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has not met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

In addressing the appellant's market value argument, the Board finds that the sale of the subject in January 2009 for $150,000 is a "compulsory sale." A "compulsory sale" is defined as:

(i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23. Real property in Illinois must be assessed at its fair cash value, which can only be estimated absent any compulsion on either party.

Illinois law requires that all real property be valued at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is likewise ready, willing, and able to buy, but is not forced to do so.

Bd. of Educ. of Meridian Cmty. Unit Sch. Dist. No. 223 v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 961 N.E. 2d 794, 802 (2d Dist. 2011) (citing Chrysler Corp. v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 69 Ill. App. 3d 207, 211 (2d Dist. 1979)).

However, when there is a recent sale of the subject, and that sale is a compulsory sale, the Board may consider evidence which would show whether the sale price was representative of the subject's fair cash value. The appellant's evidence did not dispute that the sale was a compulsory sale. In this case, the appellant did not submit additional sale comparables to show that the sale of the subject in January 2009 for $150,000 was at its fair cash value. Moreover, the board of review submitted sale comparables from 2009 that contained property characteristics similar to those of the subject and that sold for prices ranging from $224,000 to $250,000. Since there is no supporting evidence that the sale price of the subject was at its fair cash value, the Board finds that the subject is not overvalued and holds that a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
