

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Thomas Cech
DOCKET NO.: 10-28098.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-20-101-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Thomas Cech, the appellant, by attorney Stephanie Park of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Rolling Meadows; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,472
IMPR.: $18,351
TOTAL: $21,823

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,004 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 59 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, a fireplace and a 1-car garage. The property has a 6,615 square foot site and is located in Des Plains, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In Section II - Appellant (Taxpayer Information) of the residential appeal form, the address of the subject property is listed as 812 Webster Lane, and its parcel number is 09-20-101-049-0000. When the appellant's attorney completed Section V - Equity Grid Analysis of the residential appeal form, the subject property was listed as having an address of 550 S. 4th Ave and a parcel number 9-18-404-029-0000. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on twelve equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $21,823. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $18,351 or $18.28 per square foot of building area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

In this appeal, the appellant's attorney misidentified the subject property and submitted information on twelve properties that were not comparable to the subject property. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparables #1 through #3. These comparables were most similar to the subject in exterior construction and were very similar to the subject in location and foundation. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $18.30 to $19.36 per square foot of building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18.28 per square foot of building area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
