

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Shaju Joseph
DOCKET NO.: 10-29326.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-16-110-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Shaju Joseph, the appellant, by attorney John P. Brady, of Thomas M. Tully & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 1,757
IMPR.: $ 4,367
TOTAL: $ 6,124

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a 79-year old, one and one-half story, masonry, single-family dwelling containing 1,791 square feet of living area. The building is located on a 3,906 square foot site and is sited in Proviso Township. Building amenities include: a partial basement, two baths, and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. In support of this overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted data regarding the subject's recent purchase on August 12, 2010 for a price of $68,500. The appellant submitted multiple documents reflecting that the subject had been advertised for sale on the open market; that the parties were unrelated; and that the seller's mortgage was not assumed. Moreover, the appellant submitted multiple exhibits relating to the sale of a neighboring property which sold in May, 2010, for a price of $51,500. The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review establishing a total assessment for the subject of $19,314, which reflects a market value of approximately $216,040 using the 2010 Illinois Department of Revenue's median level of assessment for class 2, residential property of 8.94%. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to reflect the subject's purchase price.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). Proof of the market value of the subject property may consist of an appraisal of the subject property as of the assessment date at issue. (86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.65(c)(1)). The Board finds the appellant has met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value in the record is the subject property's recent purchase price of $68,500 on August 12, 2010. The Board finds the subject's assessment reflects a market value greater than the sale value presented by the appellant. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board.

Based on this record, the Board finds that the subject property had a market value of $68,500 as of January 1, 2010. Since market value has been determined, the 2010 median level of assessment for class 2, residential property as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue of 8.94% shall apply. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.50(c)(3).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
