

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Daniel Osborn
DOCKET NO.: 10-32360.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-28-215-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Daniel Osborn, the appellant, by attorney Anthony Lewis, of the Law Offices of Gary H. Smith in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,348
IMPR.: $16,652
TOTAL: $20,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame construction with 2,327 square feet of living area.¹ The dwelling was constructed in 1908, but has an effective age of 50 to 60 years. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and central air conditioning. The subject has a coach house at the rear of the property. The property has a 5,580 square foot site and is located in Franklin Park, Leyden Township, Cook County. The property is a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $200,000 as of January 1, 2010.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $33,482. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $334,820, when applying the Cook County level of assessments for class 2 property of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted four equity comparables to support the assessment of the main dwelling and three equity comparables to support the assessment of the coach house.

The board of review's submission included a list of 18 sales that occurred from November 1990 to July 2003 for prices ranging from $8,400 to $345,000. No other information regarding the characteristics of the sale properties was submitted for analysis.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

¹ The parties differ as to the square feet of living area, the size of the basement and whether the subject has a garage.

As an initial matter, the Board finds the sketch within the appellant's appraisal is the best evidence of the subject's dwelling size; however, the sketch did not include a basement diagram. The Board has determined that the differences reported by the parties relating to the subject's features are not significant enough to impact the Board's decision.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant estimating the subject property had a market value of $200,000 as of January 1, 2010. The Board gave little weight to the equity comparables presented by the board of review. The Board finds this evidence is not responsive to the overvaluation argument made by the appellant. The Board also gave less weight to the board of review's list of 18 sales, as the information submitted did not include property characteristics necessary when analyzing these properties' comparability to the subject. The subject's assessment reflects a market value above the best evidence of market value in the record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
