

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Junald Maniya
DOCKET NO.: 10-32938.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-27-310-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Junald Maniya, the appellant, by attorney Stephanie Park of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Rolling Meadows; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $12,726
IMPR.: $22,484
TOTAL: $35,210

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling with approximately 4,075 square feet of living area of frame and masonry construction. The dwelling was constructed in 1988.

Features of the home include a partial basement finished with a recreation room¹, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 3-car attached garage. The property has a 21,210 square foot site and is located in Bartlett, Hanover Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased in December 2010 for a price of $352,100. The appellant also submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $380,000 as of September 29, 2010. Based on this evidence the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $54,776. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $547,760 or $134.42 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables one of which sold in April 2007 for a price of $550,000.

The appellant's attorney submitted a rebuttal brief.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject in December 2010 for a price of $352,100. The appellant completed Section IV- Recent Sale Data on the appeal disclosing the sale had the elements of an arm's length transaction. The board of review submitted no evidence challenging the arm's length nature of the sale. The Board gives no weight to the equity evidence submitted by the board of review as this did not address the appellant's market value argument. The Board gives little weight to the one sale submitted by the board of review as the transaction was not proximate in time to the assessment date. The subject's assessment reflects a market value above the purchase price. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
