

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ann Waters
DOCKET NO.: 10-34418.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-03-201-060-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ann Waters, the appellant, by Edward P. Larkin of Edward P. Larkin, Attorney at Law in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $30,900
IMPR.: $190,400
TOTAL: $221,300

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2010 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,760 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 121 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a fireplace. The property has a 2,472 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Wheeling Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-10 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $221,300. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $190,400 or $40.00 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables.

The appellant submitted a rebuttal brief arguing that the board of review's comparable #3's 2008 sale supported a reduction in the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1 and #2. These comparables were most similar to the subject in location, age, size and features. The best comparables had improvement assessments of $40.94 and $42.60 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $40.00 per square foot of living area falls below the assessments established by the best comparables in this record. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables due to their dissimilar sizes, when compared to the subject. The Board also gave less weight to the appellant's rebuttal argument regarding the board of review's comparable #3's 2008 sale, due to the appellant's complaint being based on uniformity rather than overvaluation. In addition, the Board finds this suggested comparable is 20 years newer than the subject and therefore was given less weight in the Board's equity analysis. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
