

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: William Doyle
DOCKET NO.: 11-21098.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-20-400-068-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are William Doyle, the appellant, by attorney Leonard Schiller, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 50,162
IMPR.: $ 122,838
TOTAL: $ 173,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Analysis

The subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board in the prior year under docket number 2010-24505.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $173,000 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The appellant submitted an appraisal to demonstrate the subject was overvalued. The appraisal disclosed that the subject was occupied by the owner. The subject property is located in New Trier Township, Cook County, and is a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification ordinance.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal," wherein it asserted the final assessment of the subject property was $173,000. The board of review submitted descriptions and assessment information four unadjusted sales comparables to demonstrate the subject's assessment reflected the property's market value. The board of review's evidence disclosed that the appellant received a home owner's exemption in 2011.

In rebuttal, the appellant reaffirmed the request for an assessment reduction.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2010 assessment. The record further disclosed that the board of review's total assessment for 2011 is the same as the total assessment in the Board's 2010 decision. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2010 and 2011 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's-length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that no reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
