

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mohamed Ibrahim
DOCKET NO.: 11-22140.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 22-34-108-017-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mohamed Ibrahim, the appellant(s), by attorney Ellen G. Berkshire, of Verros, Lafakis & Berkshire, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 9,306
IMPR.: $48,194
TOTAL: $57,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2011 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 5,297 square feet of living area. The dwelling is four years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a four-car garage. The property has a 20,680 square foot site and is located in Leyden Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the appellant purchased the subject property in a short sale in May 2010 for a price of $405,000, or $76.46 per square foot of living area, including land. The appellant also submitted an appraisal with a June 2010 valuation date that indicates the fair market value of the subject property is $575,000. The appraiser noted the May 2010 sale of the subject and indicated the sale price did not include major items such as hardwood floors, kitchen, electrical, and plumbing fixtures. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect 10% of the appraised value.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $106,935. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,069,350 or $201.88 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2011 level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three comparable sales and the sale of the subject in May 2010 for a price of $405,000. The board of review also submitted a brief that argues the sale of the subject was a compulsory sale in the form of a short sale.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The Board finds the subject property had a market value of $575,000 as of the assessment date at issue. Since market value has been established the 2011 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10% shall apply

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
