

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Fenton Booth
DOCKET NO.: 11-22955.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-29-401-046-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Fenton Booth, the appellant, by attorney John P. Brady, of Thomas M. Tully & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $19,707
IMPR.: $63,648
TOTAL: $83,355

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2011 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story, mixed-use building with 5,304 square feet of living area of masonry construction. The property has a 2,896 square foot site and is located in Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on six suggested equity comparables. In addition, the appellant submitted the 2010 Property Tax Appeal Board's decision reducing the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $106,273. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $86,566 or $16.32 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on one suggested equity comparable.

Conclusion of Law

The Board gave no weight to appellant's rollover argument because the subject property is not owner occupied. The board finds that the appellant has not claimed any homeowner exemptions on the subject property and appellant's home address on the property characteristic printout does not match the subject's.

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1, #4, and #6. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $7.33 to $10.21 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $16.32 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board finds that the subject's improvement assessment should be higher than the range because it is superior to the comparables, but a reduction is nevertheless justified. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
