ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a condominium unit and a parking space. The property is located in Chicago, South Chicago Township, Cook County.

The subject property is an owner occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under docket numbers 10-34368.001-R-1 through 10-34368.002-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to 44,213 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The 2010 and 2011 assessment years were within the same general assessment period for residential property. The appellant also submitted documentation of the subject's 2010 sale and five sales from 2008 and 2009 to demonstrate the subject was being overvalued.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the final assessment of the subject property totaling 44,213 was disclosed. The board of review submitted an assessment analysis based on six condominium sales to demonstrate the subject was being assessed uniformly and the subject's assessment reflected the property's market value.

The appellant submitted a rebuttal brief requesting the board of review's evidence be stricken from the record.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2010 assessment. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner occupied dwelling and that 2010 and 2011 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the subject's 2011 assessment is the same as the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

As to the appellant's rebuttal, the Board denies the appellant's request that the board of review's evidence be stricken from the record. The Board will give the proper weight to the board of review's evidence in this record.

In conclusion, the Board finds no change in the subject's 2011 assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
