

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bonnie Fong
DOCKET NO.: 11-31027.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-33-421-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bonnie Fong, the appellant, by attorney Adam E. Bossov, of the Law Offices of Adam E. Bossov, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $20,437
IMPR: $77,463
TOTAL: $97,900

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately 14 years old and has 2,232 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full finished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 2,725 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the prior year under docket number 10-34943.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $97,900 based upon the evidence submitted by the parties. The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that 2010 and 2011 are within the same general assessment period for North Chicago Township. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)).

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on six equity comparables. Based on this evidence, the appellant asked that the subject's assessment be reduced to $80,437 ($20,437 for land and $60,000 for the improvement). As part of its submission, the appellant provided a printout of the subject's property characteristic sheet from the Cook County Assessor's Office. This information revealed that the homeowner's exemption was being applied to the subject property's assessment for the 2011 tax year.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the final assessment of the subject property totaling $109,851 ($20,437 for land and $89,414 for the improvement) was disclosed. The board of review submitted descriptions and assessment information on four comparables to demonstrate the subject was being assessed uniformly.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2010 assessment to $97,900. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
