

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Alice Michael
DOCKET NO.: 11-31629.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-01-120-028-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alice Michael, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,184
IMPR.: $19,316
TOTAL: $27,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2011 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately 80 years old and has 5,733 square feet of living area. Features of the dwelling include a full unfinished basement and a three-car garage. The property has a 4,092 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted limited evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on February 14, 2012 for a price of $275,000. To document the subject's sale, the appellant submitted a copy of the trustee's deed. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $51,640. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $516,400 or $90.08 per square foot of living area, land included, when applying the 10% level of assessment for class 2 residential properties under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three comparable sales that sold from March 2010 to June 2011 for prices that ranged from $450,000 to $565,000 or from $82.60 to $95.62 per square foot of living area, land included.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property on February 14, 2012 for a price of $275,000. The appellant provided limited evidence demonstrating the sale had some of the elements of an arm's length transaction. The appellant completed Section IV - Recent Sale Data of the appeal disclosing the name of the seller was Origin Realty Group, LLC. The appellant also stated the property was advertised for sale with the Multiple Listing Service and was on the market for four months. To document the transaction, the appellant submitted a copy of trustee's deed #1204545064. The trustee's deed reiterated the subject's sale price and was recorded on February 14, 2012. The Board finds the purchase price is below the market value reflected by the assessment.

The Board finds the board of review did not present any evidence to challenge the arm's length nature of the transaction and was not able to refute the contention that the purchase price was reflective of market value. Comparables #2 and #3 differed from the subject in living area, and comparable #3 was located in a different neighborhood. Comparable #1 was similar to the subject but sold in March 2010. This sale date was not as proximate to the January 1, 2011 assessment date as the date the subject property went on the market. As a result, the board of review's market evidence received little weight.

Based on this limited record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
