

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Wendy Mutchnik
DOCKET NO.: 11-33830.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-07-415-042-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Wendy Mutchnik, the appellant(s), by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $25,853
IMPR.: $17,506
TOTAL: $43,359

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of an approximately 17,528 square foot parcel of land improved with a 56-year old, one-story, masonry, single-family dwelling containing 2,210 square feet of building area. The property is located in New Trier Township, Cook County and is a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The subject property is an owner occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under docket numbers 10-24439.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $43,359 based on the appraisal evidence submitted. In this appeal, the appellant submitted the same evidence. This appraisal discloses that the subject property's occupant is the owner.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the final assessment of the subject property totaling $63,069 was disclosed. The board of review submitted information on comparables to demonstrate the subject was assessed correctly. In addition, the board of review submitted a brief asserting that the subject property was not owner-occupied. To support this, the board of review submitted a printout disclosing that no homeowner's exemption was claimed for 2011.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board also finds that the appellant submitted sufficient evidence to show the subject was owner-occupied. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year in regards to the assessed value subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2010 assessment. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner occupied dwelling and that 2010 and 2011 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
