

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Paul Dauer
DOCKET NO.: 11-33982.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-33-218-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Paul Dauer, the appellant, by attorney Joanne Elliott, of Elliott & Associates, P.C. in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,540
IMPR.: $21,522
TOTAL: $36,062

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2011 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 99-year old, two-story, frame, multi-family dwelling with two apartment units therein. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, and a four-car garage. The property has a 9,381 square foot site and is located in New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2, residential property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $380,000 as of January 1, 2010, while developing the income and sales comparison approaches to value. After an inspection, the appraisal indicated that the subject property contained 2,006 square feet of living area while breaking the square footage down between the two units. In support, the appraisal included a building schematic reflecting living area calculations. The appraisal also identified this subject as investment property with the current rent at the subject property as $2295.00 per month. In addition, the appellant requested application of the median level of assessment to any market value finding.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $47,860. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $504,320, including land, when applying the 2011 three year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.49% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue. As to the subject's building size, the board's grid analysis reflected 2,380 square feet without further elaboration.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted descriptive, assessment and sales data on four suggested sale comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value and building size to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The Board finds the non-owner occupied, subject property had a market value of $380,000 as of the assessment date at issue. Since market value has been established the 2011 three year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.49% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(2)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
