

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Derek Hackney
DOCKET NO.: 12-00459.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 30-07-16-115-037-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Derek Hackney, the appellant, by attorney Jerri K. Bush in Chicago; and the Will County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Will County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,267
IMPR.: $11,633
TOTAL: $19,900

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Will County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,152 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1900. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a 336 square foot detached garage. The property has a .20 acre site and is located in Joliet, Joliet Township, Will County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on May 2010 for a price of $30,000. The appellant completed Section IV - Recent Sale Data of the appeal disclosing the parties to the transaction were not related, the property was sold using a Realtor and the property had been advertised on the open market with the Multiple Listing Service. In further support of the transaction the appellant submitted a copy of the Settlement Statement reiterating the purchase date and price; a copy of the Multiple Listing Service data sheet depicting the property had been on the market for 19 days, a listing date of April 10, 2010 with an asking price of $43,000 and describing the subject as "Handyman special, as is, cash only"; and a copy of the Listing & Property History Report.

The appellant also submitted information on three comparable sales located from .04 to .33 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables consist of one-story dwellings that were built from 1920 to 1950. The homes contain from 1,000 to 1,238 square feet of living area. These properties sold from June 2011 to April 2012 for prices ranging from $15,000 to $23,500 or from $13.65 to $21.52 per square foot of living area, including land.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested an assessment of $9,999, which would reflect a market value of $30,000 or $26.04 per square foot of living area, including land.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $19,900. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $59,868 or $51.97 per square foot of living area, including land, when using the 2012 three year average median level of assessment for Will County of 33.24% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In response to the appeal, the board of review submitted a memorandum and documentation gathered by the Joliet Township Assessor. As to the appellant's comparable sales, the assessor noted that these comparables are all foreclosures. The assessor reiterated that the subject property was a 2010 sale and it is now income producing. The assessor also stated "The assessor's comparables are all market value transactions within the neighborhood illustrating that there is a market of non duress sales".

In support of the subject's assessment, the township assessor prepared a grid analysis of three comparable sales located within the subject's neighborhood as defined by the township assessor. The comparables consist of one-story dwellings that were built from 1923 to 1926. The homes range in size from 748 to 1,120 square feet of living area. These properties sold between January 2009 and September 2011 for prices ranging from $76,000 to $134,000 or from $71.83 to $119.64 per square foot of living area, including land.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

As to the purchase price of the subject property that occurred in May 2010 for $30,000, the Property Tax Appeal Board has given little weight to this sale which was 19 months prior to the assessment date at issue of January 1, 2012 and therefore is found to be remote in time and less likely to be indicative of the subject's market value as of the assessment date.

As to the comparable sales presented by the appellant, the board of review noted the properties sold as foreclosure or short sale properties. Section 1-23 of the Code defines compulsory sale as:

"Compulsory sale" means (i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete. 35 ILCS 200/1-23.

Section 16-183 of the Code provides that the Property Tax Appeal Board is to consider compulsory sales in determining the correct assessment of a property under appeal stating:

Compulsory sales. The Property Tax Appeal Board shall consider compulsory sales of comparable properties for the purpose of revising and correcting assessments, including those compulsory sales of comparable properties submitted by the taxpayer. 35 ILCS 200/16-183.

Based on these statutes, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds it is appropriate to consider the sale of foreclosure and/or short sale properties in revising and correcting the subject's assessment.

The parties submitted a total of six comparable sales to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparable #2. This comparable was considerably newer in age when compared to the subject property. The Board gave less weight to board of review comparable #2 as this sale occurred in January 2009, which is dated and less indicative of fair market value as of the subject's January 1, 2012 assessment date. The Board gave less weight to board of review comparable #3 due to its considerably smaller dwelling size when compared to the subject. The Board finds that the remaining three comparables have varying degrees of similarity in location, land size, dwelling size and other features when compared to the subject. These comparables sold from June 2011 to April 2012 for prices ranging from $15,000 to $77,000 or from $15.00 to $71.83 per square foot of living area, including land, respectively. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $59,868 or $51.97 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the comparable sales in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's estimated market value as reflected by its assessment is supported. Therefore, no reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
