

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Matthew Evans
DOCKET NO.: 12-02095.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-28-217-009

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Matthew Evans, the appellant, by attorney Eli R. Johnson of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $36,852
IMPR.: $187,702
TOTAL: $224,554

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame construction with 2,639 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 2006. Features of the home include a basement that is partially finished, central air conditioning, a fireplace and an attached 437 square foot garage. The property has a 7,303 square foot site and is located in Highland Park, West Deerfield Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three comparable sales.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $224,554. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $686,290 or $260.06 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2012 three year average median level of assessment for Lake County of 32.72% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

As to the appellant's evidence, the board of review argued that two of the appellant's comparables were duplex style buildings, unlike the subject, and the third comparable was an old 2009 sale.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three comparable sales.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the board of review comparable sales. These comparables were most similar to the subject in size, features and also sold more proximate to the subject's January 1, 2012 assessment date. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables due to their lack of finished basement area, smaller size or a sale date that occurred greater than 14 months prior to the subject's January 1, 2012 assessment date. The most similar comparables sold for prices ranging from $277.98 to $329.94 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $260.06 per square foot of living area, including land, which is below the range established by the best comparable sales in this record and appears to be under assessed. However, the board of review did not request an increase in the subject's assessment. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
