

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tom McCarty
DOCKET NO.: 12-03253.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-01-116-008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tom McCarty, the appellant, by attorney George J. Relias, of Enterprise Law Group, LLP in Chicago; and the DuPage County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the DuPage County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $143,110
IMPR: $380,180
TOTAL: $523,290

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the DuPage County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a part two-story and part one-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 4,611 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1998. Features of the home include a full basement with 75% of finished area, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and a 648 square foot attached garage. The property has an 18,300 square foot site and is located in Hinsdale, Downers Grove Township, DuPage County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on six equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $523,290. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $380,180 or $82.45 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on six equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted 12 equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #4 and #5 and board of review comparables #1, #3, #4 and #6 based on a smaller dwelling size and/or lack of basement finish when compared to the subject. The Board gave less weight to appellant's comparable #2 based on the considerably larger dwelling size when compared to the subject. The Board gave less weight to appellant's comparable #3 based on a considerable older dwelling when compared to the subject. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparable #6 and board of review comparables #2 and #5. These comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $78.41 to $83.55 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $82.45 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
