

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Isra Khan
DOCKET NO.: 12-20779.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-36-206-042-1008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Isra Khan, the appellant(s), by attorney Leonard Schiller, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 376
IMPR.: $ 1,455
TOTAL: $ 1,831

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a single unit located in a 60-unit residential condominium building. The building is 64 years old. The property has an 18,633 square foot site and is located in Rogers Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on September 28, 2010 for a price of $18,900. The appellant's evidence consists of a settlement statement. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to 9.49% of this amount, or $1,793 to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $12,971. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $133,860, land included, when using the 2012 three year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.69% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium sales analysis based on 2008 sales in the subject building. Based on these sales, the Board asserted the full market value of the subject unit is $178,016. When the 2012 three year average median level of assessments for class 2 property of 9.69% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue is applied to this amount, the resulting assessment is $17,250.

In written rebuttal, the appellant's attorney restated the original market value argument. The appellant's attorney also stated that the board of review's evidence did not comply with the Property Tax Appeal Board's rules.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted. The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property on September 28, 2010 for a price of $18,900. The Board finds the purchase price is below the market value reflected by the assessment. Since market value has been determined the 2012 three year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.69% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue shall apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
