

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Eric Velazquez
DOCKET NO.: 12-20816.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-18-414-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Eric Velazquez, the appellant, by Julie Realmuto, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,200
IMPR.: $2,931
TOTAL: $16,131

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately 110 years old and has 2,314 square feet of living area. Features of the dwelling include a full finished basement and a two-car garage. The property has a 4,125 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. The appellant claims that the subject's total assessment is $42,510 and its improvement assessment is $29,310 or $12.67 per square foot of living area. As part of its submission, however, the appellant provided the final decision of the Cook County Board of Review, dated December 17, 2012. The board of review's final decision indicated the subject property's total assessment for the 2012 tax year was $16,131.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $16,131. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $2,931 or $1.27 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant reported the total assessment for the 2012 tax year is $42,510 ($13,200 for land and $29,310 for the improvement). However, the appellant presented no evidence in support of this claim. The board of review reported the total assessment for the 2012 tax year is $16,131 ($13,200 for land and $2,931 for the improvement). The Board finds the best evidence of the subject's assessment was the copy of the final decision of the board of review, dated December 17, 2012, submitted by the appellant, which confirms that the subject's total assessment for the 2012 tax year was $16,131.

The Board finds that all of the comparables submitted for this appeal had higher improvement assessments than the subject property. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $6.67 to $10.63 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $1.27 per square foot of living area falls below the improvement assessments of the comparables submitted for this appeal. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
