

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Shari Goldman
DOCKET NO.: 12-20849.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-17-409-021-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Shari Goldman, the appellant, by attorney Leonard Schiller, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 31,205
IMPR.: $ 81,437
TOTAL: $112,642

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of two improvements on one parcel. Improvement #1 is a 110 year-old, two-story dwelling of frame construction containing 4,185 square feet of living area. Features of Improvement #1 include a slab foundation, central air conditioning and a fireplace. Improvement #2 is a 110 year-old, two-story dwelling of frame construction containing 956 square feet of living area. Features of Improvement #2 include a slab foundation, central air conditioning and a three-car garage. The property has a 9,178 square foot site and is located in Lake View Township, Cook County. Each improvement is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three suggested equity comparables for Improvement #1 and none for Improvement #2.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the assessments for each improvement. Improvement #1 had an assessment of $62,908, or $15.03 per square foot of living area. Improvement #2 had an assessment of $18,529, or $19.38 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables for Improvement #1 and on two suggested equity comparables for Improvement #2.

The appellant's equity comparable #2 and the board of review's equity comparable for Improvement #1 are the same property. The improvement assessment disclosed by the appellant for Improvement #1 is the same amount as the total of the improvement assessments for both Improvement #1 and Improvement #2, as disclosed by the board of review.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity for Improvement #1 to be the appellant's comparable #2, and the board of review's comparables #1, #2 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $17.75 to $18.34 per square foot of living area. The assessment for Improvement #1 of $15.03 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board finds that the parties failed to submit not less than three equity comparable properties for Improvement #2. Consequently, the appellant failed to prove by clear and convincing evidence assessment inequity for Improvement #2.

Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvements were inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
