

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Champion Rental Properties
DOCKET NO.: 12-21561.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 28-14-205-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Champion Rental Properties, the appellant, by attorney Robert M. Sarnoff, of Sarnoff & Baccash in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 1,441
IMPR: $ 5,905
TOTAL: $ 7,346

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a 51 year-old, multi-story dwelling of frame construction containing 1,127 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a partial finished basement, central air conditioning and a two-car garage. The property has a 9,607 square foot site and is located in Bremen Township, Cook County. The property is a Class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a settlement statement disclosing the subject property was purchased on January 8, 2010 from U.S. Bank, N.A. in an all cash transaction for the price of $32,100. The appellant also submitted a Rental Agreement, and partial information in Section IV - Recent Sale Data of the Residential Appeal that the subject was sold through a realtor, was advertised for sale and was not between related parties. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $7,346. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $73,460 or $65.18 per square foot of living area, when using the board of review's indicated size of 1,127 square feet and when using the 2012 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The subject's sale price of $32,100 reflects a market value of $28.48 per square foot of living area including land.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested comparable sales that occurred from 2010 through 2012 and sold from $57.63 to $154.57 per square foot of living area including land, and on the sale of the subject for the price of $32,100. The board of review also submitted a brief arguing that the subject's sale was not for fair cash value and was, therefore, compulsory. In support of this contention, the board of review attached to its brief a print-out, commonly known as a "deed trail," from the Cook County Recorder of Deeds website that disclosed the following documents were recorded against the subject property: 1) lis pendens notice by grantor U.S. Bank against grantee Jaime Arreola on May 28, 2008; 2) assignment by grantor Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. to grantee U.S. Bank on June 28, 2008; 3) deed from grantor Judicial Sales Corporation to grantee U.S. Bank on December 17, 2009; 4) Warranty Deed from grantor U.S. Bank to grantee Champion Rental Properties Corporation on January 12, 2010.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has not met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

In addressing the appellant's market value argument, the Board finds that the sale of the subject in January 2010 for $32,100 is a "compulsory sale." A "compulsory sale" is defined as:

(i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23. Real property in Illinois must be assessed at its fair cash value, which can only be estimated absent any compulsion on either party.

Illinois law requires that all real property be valued at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is likewise ready, willing, and able to buy, but is not forced to do so.

Bd. of Educ. of Meridian Cmty. Unit Sch. Dist. No. 223 v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 961 N.E. 2d 794, 802 (2d Dist. 2011) (citing Chrysler Corp. v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 69 Ill. App. 3d 207, 211 (2d Dist. 1979)).

However, when there is a recent sale of the subject, and that sale is a compulsory sale, the Board may consider evidence which would show whether the sale price was representative of the subject's fair cash value. The Illinois General Assembly recently provided clear guidance for the Board regarding compulsory sales. Section 16-183 of the Illinois Property Tax Code states as follows:

The Property Tax Appeal Board shall consider compulsory sales of comparable properties for the purpose of revising and correcting assessments, including those compulsory sales of comparable properties submitted by the taxpayer.

35 ILCS 200/16-183.

In this case, the appellant did not submit additional sale comparables to show that the sale of the subject in January 2010 for $32,100 was at its fair cash value. Moreover, the board of review submitted sale comparables. These comparables contained property characteristics similar to the subject's and sold for prices ranging from $57.63 to $154.57 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's sale price reflects a market value of $28.48 per square foot of living area including land, which is below the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Further, the subject's assessment reflects a market value of $73,460 or $65.18 per square foot of living area, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Since there is no supporting evidence that the sale price of the subject was at its fair cash value, the Board finds that the subject is not overvalued and holds that a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
