

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Vincent Parednis
DOCKET NO.: 12-22328.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 19-12-309-020-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Vincent Parednis, the appellant, by attorney Julie Realmuto of McCarthy Duffy in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,352
IMPR.: $17,618
TOTAL: $19,970

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 3,640 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 99 years old. The home has central air conditioning. The property has a 3,361 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. The appellant did not contest the subject's land assessment. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables, two of which are one-story dwellings. The comparables contain 3,182 or 3,246 square feet of living area and are 86 or 109 years old.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $27,520. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $25,168 or $6.91 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables ranging in size from 3,750 to 4,050 square feet of living area and ranging in age from 6 to 89 years old.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparable #2. This comparable was most similar to the subject in size, age and other features. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables due to their significantly smaller sizes, when compared to the subject. In addition, two of the comparables are dissimilar one-story design, unlike the subject. The Board also gave less weight to the board of review's comparables #1 and #3 due to their significantly newer age, when compared to the subject. The best comparable had improvement assessment of $4.84 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $6.91 per square foot of living area falls above the assessment established by the best comparable in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
