

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joann Ambriz
DOCKET NO.: 12-25937.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-34-300-042-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joann Ambriz, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,218
IMPR.: $68,282
TOTAL: $82,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one-story plus mezzanine industrial building of masonry construction with 6,015 square feet of building area. The building was constructed in 1975. Features of the building 1,795 square feet of office space, a ceiling height of 16 feet, one overhead drive-in door, four restrooms and roof mounted HVAC units in the office/showroom.

The property has a 17,500 square foot site and is located in Schaumburg, Palatine Township, Cook County. The property is classified as a class 5-93 industrial building under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $330,000 as of January 1, 2010. The appraisal was prepared by Gerry D. Bertacchi, Certified General Real Estate Appraiser, and Susan Z. Ulman, Certified General Real Estate Appraiser, of Zimmerman Real Estate Group, Ltd. Ulman also has the MAI designation from the Appraisal Institute. In estimating the market value of the subject property the appraisers developed the sales comparison approach to value.

The appellant submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review disclosing a total assessment of $85,861. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $343,444 when using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 5-93 property of 25%. The appellant requested the subject's total assessment be reduced to $82,500 to reflect the appraised value.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value in this record to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant estimating the subject property had a market value of $330,000 as of January 1, 2010. The subject's assessment reflects a market value above the appraised value presented by the appellant. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a) & §1910.69(a). Based on this record the Property Tax Appeal Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
