

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dan Perrino
DOCKET NO.: 12-26568.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 24-10-316-006-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dan Perrino, the appellant(s), by attorney Edward M. Burke, of Klafter & Burke in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,446
IMPR.: $ 12,298
TOTAL: $ 15,744

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,120 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 50 years old. Features of the home include three bedrooms, central air conditioning, and a full unfinished basement. The property has a 6,893 square foot site, and is located in Oak Lawn, Worth Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three comparable sales. These comparables were similar in location and design. They ranged in square footage of living area from 1,119 to 1,250 square feet. They sold from October 2011 through June 2012 for prices ranging from $120,000 to $132,000 or from $100.00 to $177.96 per square foot, including land. The Multiple Listing Service sheets indicated that sale #3 was an estate sale.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $15,744. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $162,477, or $145.07 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the 2012 three year median level of assessment of 9.69% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales. These sales were located in close proximity to the subject and ranged in square footage of living area from 1,120 to 1,490 square feet. They sold from July 2009 through October 2012 for prices ranging from $168,000 to $309,000, or from $118.12 to $251.22 per square foot, including land.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has not met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be appellant's comparables #1 and #2, and the board of review's comparables #2 and #4, as they are most similar in location, size, amenities and design. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $100.00 to $151.94 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $145.07 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
