

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Glen Missner
DOCKET NO.: 12-28924.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-31-319-075-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Glen Missner, the appellant, by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 5,299
IMPR.: $57,598
TOTAL: $62,897

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a ten-year-old, three-story dwelling of masonry construction with 2,513 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a partial basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a one-car garage. The property has a 1,514 square foot site and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on six suggested equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $62,897. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $57,598 or $22.92 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables.

At hearing, appellant's attorney reiterated the equity argument. The board of review distinguished the appellant's suggested comparables arguing that they were partial assessments. In rebuttal, appellant's attorney argued nine of the ten suggested comparables submitted by the parties supported a reduction of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the appellant submitted evidence on four equity comparables that are similar to the subject. However, the evidence shows these assessments are partial assessments with no further information as to why they are partial or what percentage of the total assessment the partial assessments are. Without this information, the Board is unable to determine if the subject is over assessed when compared to the same degree of partial assessment or total assessment of the comparables. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant failed to show by clear and convincing evidence that the subject is over assessed and a reduction based on equity is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
