

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steve Huy
DOCKET NO.: 12-29708.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-21-206-039-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Steve Huy, the appellant(s), by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,595
IMPR.: $37,377
TOTAL: $40,972

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, multi-family dwelling with 4,387 square feet of living area of masonry construction. It is 38 years old. Features include a partial basement, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The property has a 4,794 square foot site and is located in Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three comparable sales. The appellant also submitted a PTAX-203 form that indicates the subject was purchased from Wells Fargo Bank in November 2011 for a price of $340,000. The appellant did not fill out Section IV-Recent Sale Data of the Property Tax Appeal Board's appeal form, nor did the appellant submit additional information regarding the sale or argue for an assessment reduction based on this sale.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $40,972. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $409,720 or $93.39 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the 2012 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales. The board of review's grid sheet indicates the subject sold in May 2009 for a price of $330,000, or $75.22 per square foot of living area, including land. The board of review did not submit additional information regarding the sale of the subject.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be appellant's comparable sales #2 and #3 and the board of review's comparable sale #4. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $67.13 to $109.03 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $85.59 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
