

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ann Burch
DOCKET NO.: 12-30251.001-R-2
PARCEL NO.: 17-03-113-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ann Burch, the appellant(s), by attorney Julie Realmuto, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 35,952
IMPR.: $347,091
TOTAL: $383,043

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of two improvements. Improvement #1 is a three-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is 124 years old and is classified as Class 2-10 property under the Cook County Real Property Classification Ordinance. Improvement #2 is a single-family dwelling that is classified as Class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Classification Ordinance. The property has a 2,996 square foot site and is located in North Chicago Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables for Improvement #1. The appellant failed to submit any comparables for Improvement #2.

The Cook County Board of Review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal," wherein the subject's total improvement assessment of $347,091 was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment for Improvement #2, the board of review submitted descriptive and assessment information for four properties suggested as comparable to the subject. No comparables were submitted for Improvement #1.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds neither party submitted evidence of either the square footage of living area or the breakdown of the improvement assessment for Improvement #1 or Improvement #2. Accordingly, the Board is unable to determine the improvement assessment per square foot for each Improvement. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
