

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ai Ju Chen
DOCKET NO.: 12-31503.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-29-327-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ai Ju Chen, the appellant, by attorney Timothy E. Moran, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 6,900
IMPR.: $17,641
TOTAL: $24,541

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property contains two improvements. Improvement #1 is a 102 year-old, two-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 1,638 square feet of living area. Features of Improvement #1 include a crawl space basement. Improvement #2 is a 123 year-old, one-story dwelling of frame construction containing 490 square feet of living area. Features of Improvement #1 include a full finished basement. The subject property has a 3,450 square foot site and is located in South Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject property is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparables. The appellant listed the combined total assessments for both Improvements #1 and #2, but disclosed key property characteristics for only Improvement #1. The appellant requested a total assessment reduction to $16,389.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the entire subject of $24,541. The board of review submitted a Supplemental Brief arguing that the appellant incorrectly combined the assessments for both improvements but disclosed only the key property characteristics only for Improvement #1. Therefore, the board of review argued that the appellant's evidence failed to establish its burden of proof. Improvement #1 has an assessment of $13,551, or $8.27 per square foot of living area; Improvement #2 has an assessment of $4,090, or $8.35 per square foot of living area. The land has an assessment of $6,900. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables for each of Improvement #1 and #2.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity for Improvement #1 to be the appellant's comparable #4, and the board of review's comparables #1 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $6.10 to $10.18 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $8.27 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's Improvement #1 was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity for Improvement #2 to be the board of review's comparables #1, #3 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $12.17 to $20.89 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $8.35 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
