

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Sergei Abushevitz
DOCKET NO.: 12-32512.001-R-1 through 12-32512.002-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Sergei Abushevitz, the appellant(s), by attorney Edwin M. Wittenstein, of Worssek & Vihon in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
12-32512.001-R-1	13-36-220-028-1001	2,754	11,346	14,100
12-32512.002-R-1	13-36-220-028-1002	2,754	10,746	13,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two unit, non-owner occupied condominium building of frame construction with unit #1 containing 1,258 and unit #2 containing 1,064 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1878. The property has a 2,720 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property regarding unit #1 had a market value of $141,000 as of September 29, 2011 and unit #2 had a market value of $135,000 as of September 29, 2011.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment of the subject of $31,660. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $316,600 or $13.61 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2012 level of assessment for Cook County of 10% as determined by the Cook County Classification Ordinance.

In support of the assessment, the board of review submitted an analysis prepared by Dan Michaelides, an analyst with the Cook County Board of Review. He indicated the total consideration for the 2007 sale of unit #2 in the subject's condominium was $400,000. The analyst deducted $8,000 or 2% of the total sales prices from the total consideration to account for personal property to arrive at a total adjusted consideration of $392,000. Dividing the total adjusted consideration by the percentage of interest of ownership in the condominium for the units that sold of 50% indicated a full value for the condominium property of $784,000. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisals submitted by the appellant. The Board finds the subject property regarding unit #1 had a market value of $141,000 and unit #2 had a market value of $135,000 as of the assessment date at issue. Since market value has been established, the 2012 level of assessments for Cook County of 10% as determined by the Cook County Classification Ordinance shall apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
