

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Johnston
DOCKET NO.: 12-33091.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-02-300-038-1029

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Johnston, the appellant(s), by attorney Adam E. Bossov, of the Law Offices of Adam E. Bossov, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$ 384
IMPR.:	$ 1,416
TOTAL:	$ 1,800

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a condominium unit. The property is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $18,000 as of January 1, 2011. The appellant requested that the subject's assessment be reduced to 10.00% of the appraisal's estimate of market value. The appraisal states that the subject is occupied by a tenant, and, therefore, it is not owner occupied. The appraisal also states that the comparables used in the sales comparison approach to value were all foreclosures, as all sales of condominium units within the subject's neighborhood over the twelve months prior to the appraisal's effective date were foreclosure sales.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $6,316. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $63,160 when applying the 2012 statutory level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10.00%.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted a memorandum showing that four units in the subject's building, or 9.787% of ownership, sold in December 2007 or January 2008 for an aggregate price of $524,000. An allocation of 15.00% for personal property was subtracted from the aggregate sales price, and then divided by the percentage of interest of the units sold to arrive at a total market value for the building of $4,509,010.¹

The board of review also argues that the appraisal submitted by the appellant is "aggressively low" and "uses foreclosure sales as comps." In the very next sentence, the board of review states that the "sales used in the [board of review] analysis are arms-length [sic] and foreclosure sales."

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The subject's assessment reflects a market value above the best evidence of market value in the record. The Board finds the subject property had a market value of $18,000 as of the assessment date at issue. Since market value has been established the 2012 statutory level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10.00% shall apply. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(2).

¹ The Board notes that the board of review's evidence states that the total value for the subject's building is $4,550,934; however, this figure does not comport with the rest of mathematical analysis submitted by the board of review. Therefore, the Board has substituted the correct market value for the subject's building.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
