

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ned Dikmen
DOCKET NO.: 12-33779.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-04-436-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ned Dikmen, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 24,375
IMPR.: $ 0
TOTAL: $ 24,375

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2012 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a parcel of vacant land. The property has a 3,250 square foot site and is located in North Chicago Township, Cook County. The property is a class 1-00 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $145,000 as of January 1, 2007.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $24,375. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $243,750 when applying the assessment for class 1-00 property of 10.0% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its contention of the correct assessment.

At hearing, the appellant stated that his property is unique and landlocked. There is no access to the property which makes it difficult to sell. He provided copies of two aerial photos to show where his property is located and the problems associated with its location.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds that the appraisal submitted by the appellant has an effective date which is five years from the date of this appeal. This date is too far removed to be considered as an accurate depiction of the market value for the subject in 2012. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
