The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Laura Quayle, the appellant, by attorney David C. Dunkin, of Arnstein & Lehr, LLP in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Numbers 11-35064.001-R-1 through 11-35064.002-R-1. The property is located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County .

The appellant contends that pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board's prior year assessment should be carried forward to the 2012 tax year. The appellant also submitted a copy of the final administrative decision issued by the Property Tax Appeal Board in Docket Nos. 11-35064.001-R-1 through 11-35064.002-R-1 where the assessment was reduced to a total of $87,165. The appellant reported that the subject has a total assessment of $100,572. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a total assessment of $87,165.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends that pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board's prior year assessment should be carried forward to the 2012 tax year, subject only to equalization. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. On this limited record, the Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal the prior tax year under Docket Numbers 11-35064.001-R-1 through 11-35064.002-R-1. The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that it issued a decision in the 2011 appeal lowering the assessment of the subject property to $87,165 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)). The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling. The Board also takes notice that the 2011 tax year and the 2012 tax year are within the same general assessment period in Northfield Township. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)). The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's 2011 decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board was reversed or modified upon review. As a final point there was no showing that an equalization factor was applied to the subject's assessment in 2012. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision.

In conclusion, the Board has examined the information submitted by the appellant and finds, based on this limited evidence that was not refuted, a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is justified. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.50(c)(3).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
