

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Hartwig Zakin
DOCKET NO.: 13-20669.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 11-19-209-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Hartwig Zakin, the appellant(s), by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,706
IMPR.: $119,900
TOTAL: $133,606

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 3,465 square foot parcel of land improved with two improvements. Improvement #1 is a two-story, single-family dwelling containing 3,279 square feet of building area while improvement # 2 is a two-story, masonry, single-family dwelling containing 4,459 square feet of building area. The property is located in Evanston Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables for improvement #1.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $133,606. Improvement #1 has an allocated assessment of $55,841 or $17.03 per square foot of living area while improvement #2 has an allocated assessment of $64,059 or $14.37 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables for each improvement. The board of review also submitted a brief addressing how each improvement is assessed separately.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b).

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity for improvement #1 to be the appellant's comparables #1 and #3 and the board of review's comparable #3. These comparables had assessments that ranged from $16.91 to $18.40 per square foot of building area. The subject's assessment for improvement #1 of $17.03 per square foot of building area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record.

As to improvement #2, the Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables which range in improvement assessment from $17.82 to $19.40 per square foot of building area. In comparison, the subject's improvement #2 has an assessment of $14.37 per square foot of building area which is below the range of the best comparables. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
