

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kimberly Hack
DOCKET NO.: 13-21268.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-20-311-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kimberly Hack, the appellant; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 29,569
IMPR.: $ 95,591
TOTAL: $ 125,160

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 3,595 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 73 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, four fireplaces and a two-car garage. The property has a 25,713 square foot site and is located in New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $149,318. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $119,749 or $33.31 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables and three sales comparables.

The appellant submitted evidence in rebuttal, which could not be considered by the Board under the Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. Section 1910.66(c) of Title 86 of the Administrative Code states: "Rebuttal evidence shall not consist of new evidence such as an appraisal or newly discovered comparable properties. A party to the appeal should be precluded from submitting its own case in chief in the guise of rebuttal evidence." 86 Ill.Admin.Code § 1910.66(c)(emphasis added). This appraisal and additional sales comparables were submitted in rebuttal, and, therefore, was not timely filed. Therefore, the Board will not consider it.

At hearing, the appellant argued that the board of review's comparables should be given less weight because they are not comparable to the subject. The subject is part of a group of properties that do not benefit from village services like storm sewer service maintenance, road repair and snow removal which results in those properties being discounted in the neighborhood.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1, #2, and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $23.04 to $26.59 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $33.31 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
