

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rich Kopeikin
DOCKET NO.: 13-22768.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 24-28-304-026-1006

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rich Kopeikin, the appellant(s), by attorney Anne E. Larsen, of the Law Offices of Frank A. Edelman, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,428
IMPR.: $2,572
TOTAL: $4,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit. The property is a class 2-99 residential condominium under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance (hereinafter "Ordinance") and is located in Alsip, Worth Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence showing that the subject sold on February 22, 2013 for $40,000. This evidence included the settlement statement. The appellant's pleadings regarding Section IV-Recent Sale Data confirmed the closing date, sale price, the parties to the transaction were not related, the property was sold using a realtor, that the property had been advertised on the open market, and the seller's mortgage was not assumed. In addition, the appellant requested a 10% reduction for personal property. Lastly, appellant requested that the Board apply the 10% level of assessment as determined by the Cook County Classification Code. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $7,559. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $75,590 when applying a 10% level of assessment as determined by the Cook County Classification Code.

In support of the assessment, the board of review submitted an analysis prepared by Dan Micahelides, an analyst with the Cook County Board of Review. He indicated the total consideration for the sale of one residential unit in the subject's condominium from 2010 was $105,000. The analyst deducted $10,500 or 10% of the total sales prices for personal property to arrive at a total adjusted consideration of $94,500. Dividing the total adjusted consideration by the percentage of interest of ownership in the condominium for the unit that sold of 8.8800% indicated a full value for the condominium property of $1,064,189 or an assessed value of $105,419. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in February 2013 for $40,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had the elements of arm's length transaction and in support of the transaction, copies of the settlement statement were submitted. Since no evidence was submitted substantiating appellant's request for a personal property deduction, the market value of the subject shall remain at the purchase price. Lastly, the board of review failed to provide any substantial evidence to challenge the arm's length nature of the transaction.

Based on this record, the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $40,000 as of January 1, 2013. Since market value has been determined, the level of assessments for class 2-99, residential property of 10% shall apply as determined by the Cook County Classification Code shall apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
