

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Heinz
DOCKET NO.: 13-22778.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-17-312-067-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Heinz, the appellant(s), by attorney Mary Anne Phelan, of Much Shelist in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $31,208
IMPR.: $192,791
TOTAL: $223,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 5,339 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1979. Features of the home include a full finished basement, air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a two and one-half car garage. The property has a 27,138 square foot site and is located in Winnetka, New Trier Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $223,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $192,791 or $36.11 per square foot of living area. In support of the assessment, the board of review submitted four equity comparables and sales data comparable #1.

In rebuttal, the appellant's attorney distinguished the board of review's comparables based on size. In addition, the appellant's attorney submitted evidence that the subject sold on September 2014 for $1,900,000. The Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board prohibit the submission of new evidence as rebuttal and, therefore, the sale comparables and vacancy argument cannot be considered by the Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.66.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #2, #3, and #4 and the board of review's comparables #2 and #3. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $21.90 to $39.19 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $36.11 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
