

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Johnson
DOCKET NO.: 13-22891.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-06-409-052-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Johnson, the appellant, by attorney Anthony M. Farace, of Amari & Locallo in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,710
IMPR.: $36,790
TOTAL: $42,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story duplex of masonry construction containing 2,948 square feet of living area. Features include a partial basement, fully finished, two fireplaces, central air-conditioning and a 2-car garage. The subject is situated on an 8,158 square foot site and is approximately 16 years old. The subject is located in Chicago, Lyons Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. In support of this overvaluation argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $425,000 as of May 30, 2012. The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review establishing a total assessment for the subject of $78,014, which reflects a market value of approximately $780,140 using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 2-95 property of 10%. Based on this evidence the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to $42,500 to reflect the appraised value.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant in this appeal submitted an appraisal in support of the contention that the subject property was not accurately assessed. The appraisal estimated the subject property had a market value of $425,000 as of May 30, 2012. The subject property had a total assessment of $78,014 reflecting a market value of approximately $780,140 using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 2-95 residential property of 10%. The subject's assessment reflects a market value greater than the appraised value presented by the appellant. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. Based on this record the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the subject property had a market value of $425,000 as of January 1, 2013. Since market value has been determined the 10% level of assessment for class 2-95 residential property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply. 86 Ill.Admin.Code 1910.50(c)(3).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
